INDICATIONS POINT A LARGE REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

CONATY TO SUCCEED MONTGOMERY.

BISHOP MONTGOMERY.

Pope Will Name Him as Bishop fo Los Angeles.

ROME, Mar. 9.—As a result of the favorable report of Cardinal Satolli, Prefect of the Congregation of Studies, the Congregation of the Propaganda has decided to recommend to the Pope that he appoint Mgr. Conaty, former Rector of the Catholic University at Washington, as Bishop of Los Angeles in succession to the Right Rev. George Montgomery, recently appointed Coadjutor Archbishop of San Francisco.

THOMAS GARRETT IS BEREAVED.

HIS ACCOMPLISHED WIFE IS CARRIED OFF BY BLOOD POISONING.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—After an illness of six weeks Mrs. Thomas Garrett, wife of the publisher of the Evening Post, passed away yesterday.

The immediate cause of death was blood poisoning following a surgical operation, which was made necessary by an attack of appendicitis, which developed typhoid symptoms. Until seized with this illness Mrs. Garrett was in glowing health. Her death is a sore bereavement to her husband. She leaves no children.

Mrs. Garrett was a popular and accomplished lady, with a wide circle of friends. Her temperament was highly artistic, her talent running particularly to dress and house decoration. Her perception of the harmony of colors was intuitively keen, and was highly developed by taste and study.

She was one of the foremost designers of elaborate costumes on the Pacific Coast, her artistic gift giving her an especial adaptation for decorative effects.

Mrs. Garrett was born in Shasta county, her father being a wealthy pioneer of that section. Her maiden name was Mary Theresa Hickey. She first met Mr. Garrett when he was engaged in business in Shasta county, but their marriage did not take place till February 11, 1889, when Mr. Garrett was engaged in journalism in San Francisco. The nuptials were solemnized in San Jose.

Mrs. Garrett was a devout Catholic, and was active in charitable work. She was noted for her amiable disposition and her noble qualities. The funeral will take place from St. Mary's Cathedral tomorrow morning, at 10 o'clock, when a solemn requiem mass will be celebrated.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN FLORIDA.

TAMPA, Fla., March 9.—Henry Thomas, a negro, who attempted to assault the ten-year-old daughter of Porter Keen, was lynched near Parish last night after having admitted his guilt.

WARREN OLNEY HAS A LONG LEAD IN THE RACE FOR MAYOR.

Republicans Say He Will Win by a Majority of From 1,500 to 2,000—Race for City Attorney is the Only Hard Battle of the Day—Contest for Council and School Board.

A quieter election was never held in Oakland than the one now in progress.

There is a notable lack of the usual hurrying and hustling and button-holing, but the polling is heavy, showing that a keen interest is being taken in the result, and that the voters are going to the polls with their minds fully made up.

Voting began the moment the polls opened.

Citizens who do business in San Francisco usually cast their ballots before starting.

Because of the lack of enthusiasm in the campaign there were fears that a large proportion of those who do business across the bay would neglect to vote, but it was early demonstrated that these fears were groundless.

In one polling place in the Seventh Ward ninety votes were cast the first hour the polls were opened.

It was noticed that the heavy early vote was cast mainly in the precincts where San Francisco business men live. The total poll will probably be above 9000 and may reach 10,000.

If there is any considerable vote cast in the afternoon by business men returning from across the bay, it will certainly approach the latter figure.

Republicans this afternoon say that Olney will be elected by from 1500 to 2000 votes.

If indications go for anything the entire Republican ticket, with two or three minor exceptions, will be elected.

Warren Olney seems a sure winner, for he is being actively supported by a class of citizens who take but little interest ordinarily in city elections.

San Francisco business men residing in Oakland have voted today for the first time at a city election.

They all voted for Olney. He is running particularly strong in the Second, Third, Fifth and Seventh wards.

Bair seems to have a strong lead in the First and Sixth, although he is getting a considerable vote in the Second and Fourth. But the surface indications are that Olney will have a good stiff majority.

The fight of the day is between James A. Johnson and J. E. McElroy for City Attorney.

R. H. E. Espey is getting a considerable vote in the Third, Fifth and Seventh wards, but is not cutting much of a figure in other parts of the city.

He is cutting into the vote, however, in the wards where Johnson would naturally get his strongest vote.

Nevertheless Johnson is cutting into McElroy in the First and Sixth, and his friends think he will win out by a safe plurality.

Auditor Breed has virtually a walkover.

The fight between Turner and Guppy for City Engineer is all on one side—Turner's side.

For City Treasurer the fight between Felton Taylor and Murray Laidlaw promises to be close, but there is hardly a doubt of Taylor's election.

With one or two exceptions, the Republican nominees for the Council will go in by handsome majorities. Three of the four from the city at large are absolutely certain, the only doubtful case being that of Aitkin, who is being given a tight race by J. W. Evans, the Municipal League nominee.

Elliott in the Second, Fitzgerald in the Third, Meese in the Fourth, Pendleton in the Fifth, and Wallace in the Seventh are as good as elected.

The forecast is not so plain for the School Directors and Library Trustees, though in the main the Republican nominees will win.

The weather is perfect—an ideal spring day.

So there is nothing to hinder anybody from going to the polls.

The saloons are all closed, and no signs of drunkenness or disorder are visible anywhere.

Balloting is as quiet as a prayer meeting, but is all the more earnest for that.

In several of the wards the Municipal Leaguers are doing missionary work around the polls.

The candidates whose fortunes concern them most are Olney for Mayor, Espey for City Attorney and Evans for Councilman-at-Large.

The Republicans are for their straight ticket, while the Union Labor people are concentrating their fight on Bair for Mayor, McElroy for City Attorney and Laidlaw for City Treasurer.

OFFICIALS HOLD A CONFERENCE AT CAPITAL.

DISTRICT ATTORNEYS AND ASSESSORS TALK OVER FOREST RESERVE.

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9.—A conference of District Attorneys and Assessors from various counties of Northern California was held in this city today at the County Court House.

The object of the conference was to agree upon some plan of action against the proposed United States forest reserve in California.

Stockmen and lumbermen are protesting against the Government's reserve plan, saying that if the timber lands are withdrawn their interests will be ruined.

A temporary organization was effected by electing T. B. Dozier, District Attorney of Shasta county, as chairman, and H. R. Given, District Attorney of Trinity county, as secretary.

Those who answered the roll call were:

Nevada county—G. L. Jones; H. G. Schroeder, Assessor.

Sierra—W. I. Redding, District Attorney.

Glenn—R. L. Clifton, District Attorney; W. A. Markham, Assessor.

Yuba—M. T. Brittain, District Attorney.

Tehama—N. G. Gill, District Attorney.

Trinity—H. R. Given, District Attorney.

Shasta—T. B. Dozier, District Attorney; R. E. Collins, Assessor.

The following counties had agreed to send representatives to the meeting, but there were no representatives to answer the roll call. It was said, however, that a number of other District Attorneys and Assessors were expected here tomorrow:

Lake, Humboldt, Del Norte, Modoc, Plumas, Colusa, Butte, Lassen.

Chairman Dozier said the object of the meeting was to see what could be done toward the revoking of the forest reserve order. In order to get a proper commission to take up the matter, he believed the counties interested should send their District Attorneys back to Washington to interview the President of the United States and the Secretary of the Interior for the purpose of discussing the selection of a commission and to talk over the interests of the stockmen and the timber men.

Secretary Given said that Trinity county intended to fight the forestry reserve proposition to the bitter end; it would fight until its treasury became bankrupt.

After the temporary organization was effected a recess was taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

DECISION FOR DAMAGES.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—Chief Justice Fuller today delivered the opinion of the court in the case of the Kennedy Mining & Milling Company vs. the Argonaut Mining Company, both of which are California corporations.

The proceeding was instigated by the Argonaut Company for damages for ore alleged to have been extracted by the other company.

The contention of the Argonaut Company was sustained by the California Supreme Court and the opinion of that court was affirmed by today's decision.

Justices White and McKenna dissented.

KOREA IS A STORM CENTER.

THE EMPEROR OF JAPAN.

Powers Must Watch it Closely in Order to Maintain Peace.

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)

TOKIO, Feb. 21, via San Francisco, March 9.—The First bank note difficulty, which threatened serious complications between Korea and Japan, had hardly been settled with Korea, owing to the firm attitude of Japan, when another complication arose. This took the form of a Russian demand for a concession to lay the projected railway between Seoul and Wiju, a purely strategical line.

The concession was pressed for on the plea that a similar concession to lay the Seoul-Fusan railway had been granted Japan.

The demand naturally excited considerable indignation in Japan, though some publicists profess that it was merely made as a diplomatic "bluff" to forestall a possible demand by Japan for the same privilege as a quid pro quo for the late First bank note prohibition.

However that may be, it is announced today that Korea has rejected the Russian demand.

The incident is another piece of evidence that Korea is the storm-center of the Far East and it will require the keenest watchfulness on the part of representatives of all the powers to maintain peace.

It is understood that Dr. Allen, the United States Minister at Seoul, has considerable influence with the court, though at the present moment an Alsatian woman by birth and a Russian by sympathies is said to exert most potent sway over the Emperor.

Yi Yong Ik, who was recently discredited at the court and later reinstated in his former office, is believed to have strong pro-Russian leanings and a pronounced anti-Japanese bias. The rumors must, however, be received with reserve, as it is notoriously difficult to penetrate the mysteries of the perpetual intrigues going on at the Seoul court.

His Imperial Highness Prince Komatsu, an "adopted" uncle of the Mikado, passed away Wednesday.

WILL NOT APPOINT DELEGATES.

NASHVILLE, March 9. The House of Representatives adopted a resolution requesting the Governor to ignore the request of the Governor of Wisconsin to appoint delegates to a convention to retire the pure-food section, ruling that the race question will settle itself.

TEDDY M'GOVERN IS IN ALAMEDA.

FEATHER-WEIGHT ARRIVES FROM THE EAST AND COMMENCES TRAINING.

"Terrible Terry" McGovern, looking [illegible] from a long overland journey, passed through Oakland last night on his way to San Francisco. The featherweight is here to attempt to wrest the championship from Young Corbett and if confidence counts, he will do it.

McGovern was accompanied on his journey from New York by Joe Humphrey, Trainer Mayher and Eddie Cain. The quartet spent the night in San Francisco, but this morning came to Alameda, and after inspecting Croll's Gardens, selected them for training quarters.

Terry is free to talk about his line of battle with Corbett. He says that he will not rush in unprotected, as has been his practice in the past, but that he will fight a careful battle, assume a crouching position, and will probably be in the ring fifteen rounds or more.

BASKET BALL SEASON IS OPENED.

OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL BOYS DEFEAT THE TEAM FROM STANFORD.

The Bay League Basket Ball season was opened last Saturday night at the Y. M. C. A. The contesting teams were from the Oakland High School and the Stanford University and the local athletes easily defeated the college men by a score of 29 to 18. The contest was witnessed by a large number of friends of both sides and considerable rooting was passed across the galleries.

The score in the first half stood 14 to 9 in Oakland's favor, resulting in a final of 23 to 19. Collyer's accuracy was the feature of the game.

The umpires were F. J. Boek and H. Chappel; scorer, F. S. [illegible]; time keeper, H. Baker.

The lineup was as follows:

Stanford—Cahoon, forwards; Beach, forwards; Garther, forwards; Collyer, center; Tousley, guards; Stearns, guards; Schofield.

Oakland—Burpee, forwards; Farish, forwards; Menges, forwards; O. Kurtz, center; W. Kurtz, guards; Thompson, guards.

FITZ AND O'BRIEN ARE MATCHED.

FIGHT WILL TAKE PLACE IN THIS STATE DURING JULY OR AUGUST.

In the same week that Jeffries and Corbett will battle for the heavyweight championship of the world, Robert Fitzsimmons and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien will fight for the middle-weight championship before the club in this State that offers the best purse.

Lanky Bob met O'Brien in Pittsburg last night and after a fifteen minute chat the pair reached an agreement and will sign articles today.

The fight is to be for a $5,000 side bet. Al Smith, the New York sporting man, has been selected stakeholder and he is to receive the $5,000 from each of the principals as soon as the articles are signed.

BRITT AND O'KEEFE FIGHT TONIGHT.

LIGHT-WEIGHTS ARE ATTRACTING SPORTS TO PORTLAND TODAY.

Tonight Jimmy Britt of San Francisco will enter the ring with Jack O'Keefe of Chicago at Portland and seldom has a pugilistic event attracted so much attention in the north. Britt is a favorite at 10 to 6, but there are many that like the short end and are placing their money on the Easterner. Tommy Tracy, the welterweight, is one of these and yesterday wagered $250 against $400 that O'Keefe would win.

It is being said that O'Keefe would not be able to get down to the weight, but his friends and trainers say that he will not raise the scale-beam. Moreover Britt's brother hunted up the manager of O'Keefe and made him deposit $200 that his principal would be within the limit. O'Keefe has been loafing about town and it is not thought that he is over the limit.

SWINDLERS WORKING AT EMERYVILLE.

BOOKMAKERS ARE UP AGAINST SOME CLEVER OPERATORS FROM EAST.

The police and Pinkerton detectives are trying to find out who it is that is swindling the bookmakers at the Emeryville Track, but so far have been unable to find a clew. They are convinced that it is the work of experienced swindlers who probably have just had a successful picking on the Eastern tracks.

The first work of the gang was done last Thursday when William Jackman, a bookmaker, was done out of $60.

The operators would watch a man purchasing a ticket and then immediately after would purchase one like it. Then they would raise the amount of the bet by clever pencil work and also "fix" the number so that it would correspond with the books. Then if the horse won, the swindler would cash in.

BRAKEMAN SHOOTS BOLD TRAMP.

He Held Up the Trainmen and Fired Four Shots at Them at Utah Station.

OGDEN, Utah, March 9.—A fatal shooting scrape took place at Matlin this morning on the Southern Pacific.

An eastbound freight stopped at that station, and Conductor E. L. Anderson and Brakemen C. Malan and Al Stevenson ordered some twenty-five hoboes from the cars.

All the hoboes had been forced to leave the train and the conductor had returned to the caboose, when one of the tramps named Pat Costello drew a revolver and ordered the trainmen to throw up their hands.

They obeyed, but after some argument, Costello began shooting at them, firing four times.

Malan drew his revolver and fired twice, inflicting two wounds in the lower part of Costello's abdomen, either of which is fatal.

Costello was brought to the hospital in Ogden.

Malan gave himself up and with two of the hoboes, was taken to Brigham City for investigation.

AN ACTRESS PROVES A CRUEL WIFE.

Romance of Young Englishman and Chorus Girl Ends in the Divorce Court.

Judge Melvin today granted Percy T. Coxe a divorce from Bertha F. Coxe on the ground of extreme cruelty. The custody of their four-year-old son, F. W. Coxe, was awarded to the father. Mrs. Coxe left her husband in October last and offered no opposition to the suit.

Coxe was represented by Attorney E. V. Du Brutz.

The divorce is the culmination of a romance begun in 1896. At that time Mrs. Coxe was a chorus girl at the Tivoli Theater in San Francisco.

Coxe had then just attained his majority and had inherited $20,000 from the estate of his late father, who was an English country gentleman.

Coxe had come to this country to finish his education.

One evening he visited the Tivoli Theater and became smitten with the charms of one of the chorus girls. Bouquets and scented notes led to an acquaintanceship and this was soon followed by the engagement of the young couple.

They were married in Kings county on November 18, 1896. As long as Coxe's money lasted their domestic life went along smoothly. Their troubles began little more than a year ago. Mrs. Coxe insisted upon having luxuries and fine clothes that her husband could not afford after his inheritance had been dissipated and they were compelled to rely upon his salary as a clerk for their support.

Quarrels became frequent at their home in Fruitvale. Mrs. Coxe wanted to go to places of amusement, while her husband could not afford all the luxuries she demanded.

Because he did not accede to her wishes, Coxe claims, his wife began to abuse him and several times struck him. Being bred a gentleman, Coxe would not strike his wife in return, but sought to dissuade her with kind words from committing acts of violence upon him.

On one occasion, Coxe claims, his wife cut him on the arm with a knife. Their troubles ended in a separation in October last.

DEATH SUMMONS MILTON MARTIN.

Milton F. Martin, the only son of M. M. Martin, who during the years the Southern Pacific owned the Telegraph and San Pablo avenue electric lines, was superintendent of those roads, died quite suddenly Saturday at the family home, 1413 Telegraph avenue. The lad was but 16 years of age and up to Tuesday last was apparently in the best of health. While at play with other lads he became very much heated and contracted a severe cold, which terminated in an attack of rheumatism of the heart.

ESCAPED PRISONER IS IN HONOLULU.

He Was Sent to Alcatraz for Life—Tells How He Landed on Oakland Shore.

(Correspondence Associated Press.)

HONOLULU, T. H., Mar. 2, via San Francisco, Mar. 9.—The half negro convicted under the name of Roger James, sentenced to twelve years in Oahu penitentiary for burglary, and who states that he is an escaped prisoner from Alcatraz, has written a statement telling of his actions since he enlisted in the American army for the Spanish war. He signs it as Leonard Wilmore of Company M, Twenty-fifth Infantry. According to his story, he served on both sides in the Philippines and was a traitor to both and killed a companion in the American army before his first desertion. James, or Wilmore, wants to be returned to Alcatraz, as he says Oahu prison is too hard.

The convict's statement as to his having been an Alcatraz prisoner is believed by the prison authorities here and they are preparing to secure satisfactory proofs in order that he may be turned over to the Federal authorities.

Sergeant Bales of the Sixth Artillery, now in Honolulu, is said by the convict to have been the latter's guard on the transport Meade when James was a prisoner, and while Bales' identification is not certain, he states that he was the guard of some negroes at the time referred to by the convicted burglar.

Roger James says that he swam from Alcatraz Island to Oakland and that a companion who tried to escape with him was drowned. The escape took place at 8 o'clock in the evening, about the 1st of November, 1901.

After eight hours' struggle in the water, James says he made a landing on the Oakland side, exhausted and benumbed with cold. He made his way to San Francisco, shipped on a whaler and after a short time in Japan and China came to Honolulu, where he was the leader of a gang of burglars which was recently rounded up by the police. The convict was five or six months with the Filipino army, being given the rank of Captain. He was finally condemned to death by the Filipinos for allowing American condemned captives to escape. He escaped from the Filipino camp, watch and reached the American lines. He was tried and sentenced to life imprisonment and entered at Alcatraz about the end of October, 1901.

He comes direct from India, the land of mystery and mysterious powers, where he was born and raised. He has proven that palmistry is a science. That the past, present and future can be read from the hand. He tells you how to regain lost love, and helps in all other trouble. Will diagnose your disease and tell you how to cure it. KOCIAN GEYER
AND THE
WEBER PIANO
Read the Following Letter:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 7, 1903.

CLARK WISE & Co., Agents Weber Pianos, San Francisco, Cal.—Gentlemen: We desire to thank you for the beautiful Weber Concert Grand Piano which was placed at our disposal during the Kocian-Geyer recitals. Its tone quality, remarkable for purity, sweetness and power, commands our admiration, while the action is simply perfect.

It gives us great pleasure to tender you this testimonial, especially in view of the opposition we have met with in San Francisco from parties interested in other makes of instruments who have endeavored to make so much capital out of the little accident (?) which occurred to the piano at the first recital, when the lyre holding the pedals had been broken in several places by some unknown person. Yours respectfully,

JULIE GEYER, Pianiste

BOTH PARTIES MAKE THEIR NOMINATIONS.

The Republican and Non-Partisans Meet in Convention and Name Their Candidates.

BERKELEY, March 9.—Both the Republicans and Non-Partisans held their conventions Saturday evening and nominated their candidates for the coming election on April 13th. The Republicans met in Shattuck Hall, while the Non-Partisans held their meeting in Odd Fellows' Hall. Both conventions were largely attended, much interest being manifested by the politicians and their friends.

Several candidates were made by both parties. Merrill, for clerk, Hanscom for Auditor; Connor, Trustee from the First Ward; Staats, Trustee from the Fifth Ward; Weir, School Director from the First Ward, and Sutherland, School Director from the Fifth Ward, will have no opposition at the election, being nominated by both parties.

V. J. Robertson acted as chairman of the Non-Partisan convention, and E. L. Favor as secretary. In arranging their platform the proposed amendments to the town charter were fully discussed. After going over the ground carefully the delegates decided that at this time it was best to let the charter stand as it now reads. It was the general opinion that to tinker with the charter would result in a great deal of confusion. The Non-Partisans, therefore, will not favor the amendments at the coming election. Another important plank adopted was that all of the candidates should pledge themselves to literally and rigidly enforce the mile limit law.

The officers nominated were as follows: Clerk, C. S. Merrill; Marshal, Chas. T. Kerns (present incumbent); Treasurer, Philo Mills; Assessor, I. W. Wells (present incumbent); Auditor, M. L. Hanscom; Trustee First Ward, Fred F. Connor; School Director First Ward, W. K. Weir (present incumbent); Trustee Third Ward, A. ... Mervy; School Director Third Ward, J. L. Robertson; Trustee Fifth Ward, H. C. Staats (present incumbent); School Director Fifth Ward, A. T. Sutherland (present incumbent); Trustee Seventh Ward, Henry W. Taylor; School Director Seventh Ward, W. J. Schmidt.

Trustee Seventh Ward, Christian Hoff (present incumbent); School Director Seventh Ward, G. Gelerine.

E. C. Marlave presided over the Republican convention and J. Glen Arnold acted as secretary.

When nominations for Clerk were called for C. D. Maloney, present incumbent and up till now a strong candidate for the office, withdrew from the race. "I did not know before," said Maloney facetiously, "that there were two such good men in town as Merrill and myself. In consideration of the long friendship between Merrill and myself, the large number of mutual friends that we both have and the unpleasantness that a contest between us would result in, both to our friends and the party, I wish to withdraw my name for the good of all concerned, and in the interest of the Republican cause."

Maloney has been offered a position in San Francisco, and will retire from the active field of politics, though he will always retain that interest and loyalty to the party that have characterized his public career.

The convention and nominees pledged themselves to enforce the mile limit law. The action of having this law enforced by private subscription was deplored. The Republicans also favor an increase in the school facilities. They will fight for the amending of the charter to make the appointive officers elective. These are the three principal planks of local interest in their platform. The convention was made a permanent organization for two years with the above president and secretary.

The following nominations were made: Clerk, C. S. Merrill; Marshal, Geo. C. Pafe; Treasurer, C. R. Lord (present incumbent); Auditor, M. L. Hanscom; Assessor, C. G. Brasile; Trustee First Ward, F. F. Connor; School Director First Ward, W. K. Weir (present incumbent); Trustee Third Ward, Francis Ferrier (present incumbent); School Director Third Ward, Dr. Knowles; Trustee Fifth Ward, R. C. Staats (present incumbent); School Director Fifth Ward, A. T. Sutherland (present incumbent); Trustee Seventh Ward, Henry W. Taylor; School Director Seventh Ward, W. J. Schmidt.

TO BUY STANDARD SOAP WORKS.

TILLMAN AND SENDEL NEGOTIATING FOR PLANT IN WEST BERKELEY.

WEST BERKELEY, March 9.—Tillman & Bendel, the wholesale spice dealers and manufacturers of San Francisco, are now consummating a big deal with the Standard Soap Works of West Berkeley, that will be of tremendous commercial importance to residents of this town.

The proprietors of the soap works will neither deny nor affirm the report, but there is little doubt as to its authenticity. It is said that the soap plant owners have been offered $50,000 for the entire outfit, including buildings and considerable land, but that they are still holding out for $75,000. The negotiations have been going on for the last week, but have not been closed yet.

The Standard Soap Works were once one of the largest factories of its kind on the coast. It produced the largest output of soap in all the standard brands of any other plant. Its location is on Third street between Addison street and Dwight way. Mrs. J. W. Thomas, widow of the late Captain Thomas of La Loma Park, is the president of the company and Daniel E. Dowling is the manager and secretary.

There is some reason to believe this purchase of the soap works will mean the first step in transferring the large manufacturing concern of the spice to this side of the bay.

ATTACHMENT ON SHOE COMPANY.

The Wagner Leather Company of San Francisco has levied an attachment through the Superior Court of San Francisco, on the West Berkeley Boot and Shoe Company. The Kron Tanning Company of San Francisco has also put on an attachment on the building and stock of D. R. Wentworth, the head of the West Berkeley Boot and Shoe Company. W. J. Acheson has been appointed watchman for the court. Harry Johnson is the attorney for the Wentworth Company.

GREEK MAY DEBAR MANY AMERICAN STUDENTS.

Candidates for Rhodes Scholarships Must Be Well Versed in the Classic Languages.

BERKELEY, March 9.—If the Trustees of the Rhodes scholarships remain firm in their present stand that all students who receive the scholarships must come up to the entrance requirements of Oxford, many American students who hope to receive the advantages of one of the scholarships will be disappointed. For one of the requirements is that the students be familiar with Latin and Greek. In England every university man is well versed in the classics, while the American system of education does not lay the same emphasis upon these studies. Many of our best students have only a brief knowledge of Latin and know nothing of Greek.

Principal G. R. Parkins of the Rhodes scholarship visited Berkeley Saturday afternoon and held a conference with President Wheeler of the State University. The object of Principal Parkins' visit to the coast is to consult with the leading educators as to the best plan to persue in awarding the scholarships. He has traveled all over America, visiting the leading educational centers, California being the last place in his long tour.

In an address before the students this morning Mr. Parkans said:

"I am at present making a tour of this continent, gathering the opinions of the educators of the various schools and colleges relative to the adoption of a scheme whereby the terms of the Rhodes' scholarship may be carried out. I have about finished my work, and will return to England in May, when I will make my report to the Rhodes Trustees. I think that we can announce some time in the fall the terms upon which the scholarship will be granted. Later I shall visit Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

"In regard to academic requirements one thing is certain, Oxford will not take any man that can not come up to her matriculation requirements. This means that he must show a familiarity with the Latin and Greek authors, and be able to present one of each for admission requirements. This, I find, will present a great difficulty to the many American students. Oxford may at some time modify her requirements, but the change will not come in the near future.

"One of the greatest problems that we shall have to consider is the age of the candidates. Personally, I favor the more mature students—those who have spent at least two years in American universities. The danger of denationalization of such students would be very slight."

EVENING GIVEN UP TO LOCAL COMPOSERS

BERKELEY, March 9.—The Hillside Club held its regular meeting at the Hillside school Saturday night, the evening being devoted to California composers. The school-house was crowded, the meeting being one of the most successful in the history of the club. All of the composers mentioned were present.

CHICKEN THIEVES IN SAN LEANDRO

MR. PAMAGLOTTE REPORTS THE LOSS OF TEN VALUABLE FOWLS.

SAN LEANDRO, March 9.—Chicken thieves have again commenced work in this district. During the past two weeks numerous complaints have been made to Marshal Geisenhofer of chickens being stolen and an attempt is being made to capture the thieves. It has been some time since the chicken thieves worked in San Leandro owing to the arrest of several small boys, who were caught red handed and narrowly escaped being sent to the reform school.

Last week M. Pantagiott reported that one goose and ten chickens had been removed from his place at night. Since then several others have complained of similar losses, but so far no trace of the thieves can be found. Chicken raisers in this vicinity have taken every precaution to protect their property from these thieves while Marshal Geisenhofer is doing all in his power to place them behind the bars.

REPORT OF RAINFALL.

Although the rainfall during the early part of this season exceeded that of last year during the same time, Driver, Aber & Co.'s report, made last week, shows the rainfall up to March 6th to be 16.67 inches, which figures tally exactly with the rainfall of last year on the same date. The rain, however, has been pretty well distributed and the fields and orchards present a good appearance. Fruit men declare that the present indications are for a big crop of all varieties of fruit.

SUBWAY WORK AT EMERYVILLE.

ROCK IS STILL BEING HAULED TO FORM A SOLID BULKHEAD.

EMERYVILLE March 9. — Fifty teams have been put to work hauling rock to the new pier at Emeryville. The rock is being brought a distance of about three miles and is being used to fill in around the bulkhead at the land end of the pier.

It is the intention of the company to fill ultimately the entire length of the pier with rock. This will be a considerable undertaking as the pier is three and one-half miles in length and the rock has to be brought such a long distance that it will be a slow process. As soon as the track is laid however, freight cars will be used and that will facilitate matters considerably.

A force of men are now engaged in laying a track down Adeline street and it is expected that the work will soon commence on Fortieth street also.

The old track along Yerba Buena avenue has been removed and grading is to begin at once. Rails to be used along Yerba Buena avenue are now together with ties and fish plates stacked up on Park avenue.

A gang of men are putting in a switch for the Southern Pacific Company at B street. The company will put in the switch, but the San Francisco, Oakland and San Jose Railway Company will put in the track which is to be used in bringing material for the new power house and subway.

The work on the new power house is being rushed as rapidly as possible. The trench has been almost completed for the foundation of the walls and the foundations for the heavy machinery will be finished in a short time. The boilers will be the first to be put in and nine car loads of these are now on their way from the East. It is expected that the power house will be completed in about sixty days

BOND ELECTION AT FRUITVALE.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT WILL BE MADE TO SECURE SCHOOL BUILDING.

FRUITVALE, March 9.—Considerable interest is being evinced here in the coming school bond election, which will take place on Wednesday, March 18th. The election will decide whether or not the district will be bonded to the extent of $15,000 for the purpose of building a school in the Allendale tract.

The residents of the Allendale district have been agitating the proposition of building a school house in that section for some time. One attempt was made to bond the district for the purpose of building the school, but it failed through an error in the election proceedings. It is the opinion of many that the election will carry favorably.

GLANDERS AMONG NEW YORK HORSES.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Because of the unprecedented prevalence of glanders among horses in this city, Quarantine rules may be so rigidly enforced as to work great inconvenience to owners, particularly to those doing heavy trucking business. Careful inspection has been ordered and a quarantine has already been placed upon one stable in which 100 horses boarded. Several other large stables are under suspicion and one of the largest milk dealers in the country may have his stables closed today.

Mrs. L. H. Greenewald, wife of Capt. Greenewald, who was at the head of the famous Jessie civil-war scouts named in honor of Mrs. Fremont, is the only woman weather forecaster in the country. She is the observer of the United States weather bureau at York, Pa., and has just completed her sixteenth year of service in that capacity. She has been commended on many occasions for efficiency.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Rev. H. W. Brayton, State Superintendent of the Children's Home Finding Society of California, gave an illustrated lecture yesterday evening at the Presbyterian Church of Golden Gate, on the subject, "The Making of Good Citizens."

In course of his lecture Rev. Brayton used selections from over one hundred stereopticon pictures, plain and colored, illustrating the work of the society and many of the phases of child and home life, together with illustrated songs and some of the famous cartoons of Frank Beard.

The society of which Rev. Brayton is the president seeks to find homes for waifs who have no true home, thus saving them from vagabondry and crime. This commends itself to the public as being at once the most humane and economical way of disposing of homeless children, as the placing of them in an institution has a tendency to stunt the individuality of a child which is fostered in family life and at the same time is less costly to society at large.

Luckless ventures are usually entered upon without intelligent consideration.

HAYWARDS, March 9.—The Town Trustees decided at a recent meeting to have a steel tower erected on the building occupied by the fire department. The tower will suport the fire bell, which now hangs in the wooden tower on the plaza. Plans and specifications for the steel tower were presented at the meeting and after making several amendments the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of the tower, which will cost in the neighborhood of $700. The bell and wooden tower will be removed from the plaza within a short time in order that the Women's Improvement Club may proceed with its work on the park.

At a previous meeting of the Trustees a delegation from the Board of Trade requested that the Trustees appropriate a certain sum towards getting out a pamphlet advertising the town. The question arose at the time whether or not the Board could make such a donation, and at the last meeting a report from Town Attorney Largan set forth that the Trustees could not make the appropriation.

A petition from the residents on upper B street, requesting that an electric light be placed in that vicinity, was granted.

In reply to a recent request that an old switch on lower Castro street be removed the Trustees received a communication from the Oakland Transit Company stating that the switch would be removed in the near future.

On behalf of the Workmen, George Oakes apeared before the Board and requested the Trustees to draw up resolutions endorsing the effort being made by Haywards Lodge of Workmen to secure for the town the Grand Lodge of the A. O. U. W. in 1904. After some discussion the clerk was instructed to draw up such resolutions, and present them for passage at the next meeting.

After allowing the usual monthly bills and receiving the reports of several committees the meeting was adjourned.

CONGREGATIONALISTS TO MEET.

The Spring meeting of the Bay Association of Congregational churches and ministers will be held in Haywards tomorrow. The session will open at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue during the day with an intermission at noon.

The day will be devoted to the discussion of matters of interest to both pastors and their churches and many well known divines will address the meeting. The convention will be held in the Congregational church. A question box will be established for the answering of questions relative to church work and religion.

The funeral services took place at the late home of the deceased, after which the body was brought to Haywards where it was interred at Lone Tree Cemetery. NICHOLS TOO MUCH FOR 'VARSITY BATTERS

BERKELEY, March 9.—Had California been as strong at the bat as she was in the field the game Saturday afternoon might have turned out differently. As it was, the Reliance team defeated the collegians by the score of 5 to 0. At no time after the third inning did Berkeley have a chance of winning the game.

Nichols, for Reliance, pitched a magnificent game, only one safe hit being made off his delivery during the entire contest. The hit was by Heitmuller, who barely reached first on it. For California, Heitmuller did splendid work in the box, considering that it was his first game that he has pitched for the 'varsity. He struck out seven men, and played a steady game. Overall is still afraid to use his lame arm for pitching.

In their fielding the 'varsity showed some improvement, playing a gritty uphill game to the last. But at the bat they were a hopeless failure.

The teams lined up as follows:

California—Hatch, c.; Heitmuller, p.; Overall, 1b; Bliss, 2b; Causley, 3b; Adams, ss.; Kennedy, lf.; Theobold and Sheeline, cf.; McKeown, rf.

Reliance—Burrows, c.; Nichols, p.; Williams, 1b; Egan, 2b; Streib, 3b; Nealon ss.; Morrison, lf.; Jacobs, cf.; McWilliams, rf.

DESERTERS AMONG CREW.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., March 9.—According to report current here the next Zeigler North Pole expedition will carry among its crew at least three deserters. They are said to be from the United States revenue cutter Samuel Dexter, stationed at this port.

Captain Newcomb of the revenue cutter says that after the Coffin party had started it was discovered that three of his men had deserted.

The informant of the government is a sailor of the Dexter, who alleges that five of the cutter's crew were offered easy work and good pay if they would join the expedition. Only three of them, he added, accepted.

BOYS MEET WITH ACCIDENTS.

TWO ELMHURST LADS FALL AND SUSTAIN PAINFUL INJURIES.

ELMHURST, March 9. — Jimmie Parker and Herbert Hansen, two small boys who reside in Elmhurst, met with accidents recently that resulted in the breaking of bones.

Young Parker, while attempting to scale a fence at his home, missed his footing and fell to the ground, sustaining a fracture of the clavicle. He is reported to be recovering rapidly.

Shortly after Parker was injured young Hansen fell on the cement sidewalk and broke the large bone in his left forearm between the wrist and elbow. Both boys will be laid up for several weeks.

NECK BROKEN WHILE WRESTLING.

NEW YORK, March 9.—After completing the autopsy on the body of George Cooper, whose neck was broken while wrestling with Frank Wagner at the Turn Verein in Green City, Friday night, Coroner's Physician Charles Wuest said death was the result of a most unusual accident. Wagner had partly thrown Cooper, who suddenly lost his balance and fell off the mat, striking the floor on the back of his neck. His long-shanked collar button struck the side of the spinal column at its tenderest place, causing the fracture.

BRIDE COMPLAINS ON GROUNDS OF CRUELTY.

DECLARES HUSBAND BEGAN TO ABUSE HER SOON AFTER MARRIAGE.

Pretty Ethel Holland, a bride of ten months, today began suit for a divorce from George A. Holland, a bridge builder in the employe of the Southern Pacific Company, charging him with extreme cruelty and intemperance. She is represented by Attorney D. Mitchell.

The Hollands were married on May 2, 1902. Their troubles began soon afterward, according to the story told by the young bride. While a few weeks after their marriage, Mrs. Holland claims, her husband began to neglect her and stay out late nights, drinking and carousing. When she remonstrated with him, he told her to mind her own affairs.

Finally, Mrs. Holland claims, her husband struck her. That was more than she could stand. She left him and returned to the home of her mother on Atlantic street.

Mrs. Fannie Crawford, sister of Henry Squires, was granted a divorce from Frank M. Crawford today on the ground of desertion. They were married in 1888.

Kate A. Edwards today filed an answer and cross-complaint in the action for a divorce recently begun by her husband, F. W. Edwards. She declares that her husband made her life miserable by continual scolding and fault-finding. She claims that he was never pleased with her cooking or housekeeping, no matter how hard she worked.

Patrick Kelly, the real estate dealer, who is being sued for a divorce by Cecilia Kelly, today secured a modification of the injunction preventing him from disposing of any of his property. He complained that the injunction went too far and prevented him from carrying on his business.

According to the wife's statements, they were secretly married about ten years ago. They kept their secret from the world for several years, although Mrs. Kelly often begged her husband to openly acknowledge her as his wife. He answered her pleadings, she says, with abuse and beatings. Ever since their marriage they have lived in separate houses.

RIGHTS OF POWERS IN PERSIA.

LONDON, March 9.—Supporters of a friendly understanding between Russia and Great Britain regarding countries where their interests clash are much interested in what was regarded as being a significant statement made by Under Foreign Secretary Cranborne in the House of Commons today.

Replying to a question the Secretary declared the Government was of the opinion that it was most desirable that there should be an amicable understanding between Great Britain and Russia on the subject of their respective interests in Persia and elsewhere and he added a question concerning those interests had lately been discussed by the two governments.

RAILROAD TO TAKE A HAND.

REDDING, March 9.—Detective William Ahern of the Southern Pacific Company, while passing through Redding this morning on his way to Keswick, stated that the railroad company would take a hand in the strike. The strikers have been in the habit of gathering at depot grounds in Keswick station and through peaceful intercession have prevented men from going to work at the smelter.

Ahern said this gathering of strikers at stations and stopping of arrivals must stop; that if he can't stop it himself, he will arrange to have uniformed police sent by the company in sufficient numbers to stop it.

Miss Mullen is employed by Emil Lenhardt, the candy manufacturer, and left his store at 11:30 o'clock on the night of the accident. The accident is attributed to the absence of lights that should have been placed around the excavation.

JAP YIELDED TO TEMPTATION.

ORIENTAL GIVEN THREE YEARS AT FOLSOM FOR ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

Jiro Nakagawa, a Japanese, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of attempted burglary and was sentenced by Judge Ellsworth to three years' imprisonment at Folsom.

Tears rolled down the swarthy cheeks of the almond-eyed native of Japan as the words were pronounced depriving him of his liberty.

Nakagawa made his confession through an interpreter. He stated that he had come to this country to get an education. Several days ago while passing the home of Mrs. Nellie Bwasey, 224 Ninth street, he noticed that a window was open. A ladder stood conveniently near. Up the ladder went Nakagawa. He was discovered just as he was opposite the open window and his capture followed.

Nakagawa told Judge Ellsworth that he did not intend to enter the house, but just wanted to look through the window to see if there was anything he could reach that would be of value to him in his efforts to get an education.

MAY TIE UP THE PLANT

THE STRIKE SITUATION IS NOT VERY BRIGHT IN THE NORTH.

REDDING, March 9.—In an interview regarding the strike situation at Keswick, Sheriff Richardson expresses his belief that if the strikers succeed in tying up the mining and smelter works, the plant will remain closed forever. The news is discouraging, coming as it does from Mr. Richardson, than whom there is no one more cognizant of the circumstances surrounding both sides of the strike situation. The Sheriff believes that the strikers are steadily gaining ground and that it will only be a matter of a few weeks before the complete shutdown will occur.

The mine is in a lamentable and dangerous state as the result of several months' idleness due to the two strikes. Owing to its condition, the directors in London were not inclined to open up again after the first strike, but on the assurance of Manager Wright that there would be no more trouble, they consented.

A portion of the works had been operated but a short time when the second strike was called.

"The smelter is running at about one-third its capacity and the company is making no progress," says Sheriff Richardson. "In increasing its force. Delegates of strikers board each northbound train at Redding and each southbound train at Kennett. Workingmen on the trains who may be bound for Keswick are informed there is a strike at Keswick and are usually induced to keep on traveling."

STOCK DISTRIBUTED TO HASLETT HEIRS.

Judge Hall today ordered a distribution of 632 shares of stock of the Haslett Warehouse Company belonging to the estate of the late Samuel Haslett, to the widow, Mrs. Mary Haslett, and five children, Samuel M., Percy E., Oliver C., Sidney and Alice H. Haslett. The widow is to receive one-half of the stock and the other half goes to the children. The estate is valued at $61,000.

Judge Hall also directed that the family residence, valued at $16,000, be set apart to the widow as a homestead. The sum of $500 a month was awarded to the widow for her support.

COURT GRANTS WIDOW ALLOWANCE FOR SUPPORT.

Judge Hall today granted Mrs. Laura A. Pelouze a family allowance of $250 a month from the estate of her late husband, W. S. Pelouze. The estate is valued at $62,717.28.

WORKED FOR A LIVING.

Upon one of the stones in a little graveyard in an Ohio hamlet is this inscription: "He worked for his living."

He worked for his living, and that was all;
He built no cities with gleaming spires;
No liveried servants obeyed his call;
His breast never burned with celestial fires.
He never led cheering walls and charge and slay,
But here he has all that he now requires.

He worked for his living, and that was all—
'Tis common; no wonder that men ignore him;
He caused no marvels to rise or fall,
And the stone is little that's leaning o'er him.
What he had he earned—'tis enough to say;
His title's clear, let him sleep away;
The world goes on as it did before him.
—S. E. Kiser, in Chicago Record-Herald.

LITTLE ODDITIES.

The inhabitants of the Andaman islands celebrated the recent Indian coronation of King Edward with great enthusiasm, and the aborigines, who are about the wildest and least civilized in the world, did so in characteristic fashion. Sir Richard Temple, the chief commissioner of the islands, delivered to them a speech in their own dialect, of which the following is a translation: "This is the Great Chief Edward's assembly. The Great Chief Edward is kind. The great chief is gracious. We will feast on turtle. We will feast on pork. We will feast on honey. Assembled we will dance. Stalking turtle, hunting pigs, gathering honey, we will sing songs. Till midnight we will sing songs. Tonight we will not sleep. In the morning we will sleep."

Tourist abroad often comment on the tics in foreign languages. The well-meant efforts of landlords and others to convey in the language of the visitor the meaning of the native often produce amusing results. A traveler in Switzerland found this notice posted in his room in his hotel: "Misters, the venerable voyagers are earnestly requested not to take clothes of the bed to see the sun rise for the color changes."

Recently compiled statistics show that the proportion of twins born as compared with other infants is one in eighty births. Of triplets there is only one instance in 6,400 and quadruplets are as one to 512,000; while the chances of a quintet are even more remote, the ration being one in 40,980,000 births. A case is known of a woman who presented her husband with seven successive triplets.

FAMILIES HAD TO LEAVE HOMES.

HAD TO MOVE TO HIGHER GROUND BECAUSE OF HIGH WATER.

LINCOLN, Nebraska, March 9.—A special to the Star from Columbus, Nebraska, says:

Three hundred families living in Columbus have been compelled to leave their homes and seek higher ground.

The Lewis River at this point is more than a mile and a half wide.

The Union Pacific tracks for that distance from Columbus to the big bridge over the Lewis River are under water and cannot be used. Ice gorges are forming and breaking continually.

At Stanton, Minnie Doetsch was drowned in Union Creek, which is beyond its banks.

FAMILIES OUT OF HOMES.

RISE IN THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER THREATENS TO RUIN FARMERS.

ST. LOUIS March 9.—One hundred families living below Alton, Ills., have been rendered homeless and many lost their belongings as a result of the rise in the Mississippi river.

The river also threatens to inundate the fine farming lands on Missouri point, across the river, and farmers and stockmen are preparing to move out.

Hundreds of farmers living in the lowlands about Harrisburg, Ills., have been forced to move by the rising of Saline and Bankston creeks, some abandoning stock to the flood. For miles the country thereabouts is a vast sheet of water.

Reports from Hannibal, Mo., state that the Upper Mississippi is sending down great volumes of water and the river is higher for this time of season than for years.

SHOT THE GIRL HE LOVED.

M'PHERSON, Kas., March 9.—Dr. D. C. Rano, convicted of shooting Maud Holmes, with whom he was in love, was today sentenced to one year and six months in the penitentiary. An appeal to the State Supreme Court will be taken.

A LITTLE WHILE.

A little while, a little love,
The hour yet bears for thee and me,
Who have not drawn the veil to see
If still our heaven be lit above.
Thou merely, at the day's last sigh,
Hast felt thy soul prolong the tone;
And I have heard the night wind cry
And deemed its speech mine own.

A little while, a little love,
The scattering autumn boards for us
Whose bower is not yet ruinous,
Nor quite unleaved our songless grove.
Only across the shaken boughs
We hear the floodtides seek the sea,
And deep in both our hearts they rouse
One wail for thee and me.

A little while, a little love,
May yet be ours who have not said
The word it makes our eyes afraid
To know that each is thinking of.
Not yet the end: be our lips dumb
In smiles a little season yet:
I'll tell thee, when the end is come,
How we may best forget.
—Dante Gabriel Rossetti.

LOVE SHALL STAY.

The rose is dead, and the honey bee
Forsakes the empty flower,
And summer has sailed across the sea,
Away from the leafless bower.

And the singing birds, to the siren South,
Have followed the sunbeams track,
And never a word in the frozen month
Has the year to hail them back.

And rosy love with his eyes of dawn,
And his cheek of dimpling laughter—
How shall he live where the skies are wan?
Ah me: Will he up, and after?

The swallow may go, and the sun depart,
And the roses bloom decay,
But I'll make a summer within my heart,
And love, sweet Love, shall stay!
—Margaret Armour.

SINGULAR PEOPLE.

The British war in Somaliland causes the employment by the army of many hundreds of camel drivers. The Somalis sing to their camels, and at daybreak when the camp is stirring and the camels are being loaded for the march the Somali camelmen chant a song to which the camel is supposed to reply. The headman opens the song, his fellows repeating the line twice:

"One day and one night more, camel.
One day and one night more, camel.
One day and one night more, camel."

To which the beast is supposed to reply through the mouth of one of his attendants:

"Come, load me quickly.
"Come, load me quickly."

In this manner, also, the packmen of Korea sing to their ponies as they trudge across the hermit kingdom with their loads of salted fish.

The Maya people of Yucatan are peculiar in making a habit of using their toes just as much as their hands. A traveler who visited that country lately tells of seeing a pig break into a house and the vain efforts of a woman to drive it out, until at length, getting a chance as the animal ran past the door, she seized him by the tail with the great and second toe of her right foot and "with a graceful swing landed the pig some yards beyond the threshold."

In some parts of rural England there is a belief that if some hair is cut from the hollow of the neck of a person who is sick and placed in some milk given to an animal to drink the patient recovers, while the animal will die. It is thought necessary for the person administering the milk to observe secrecy, but probably this restriction is due to the fact that the suffering animal is usually a neighbor's cat.

READY TO MEET THE ISSUE

FULL TREASURY DURING BASEBALL WAR IN THE SOUTH.

LOS ANGELES, March 9.—Prompt action has been taken by the directors of the Los Angeles baseball club to carry on their part in the prospective war between the Pacific Coast League and the Pacific Northwest League. At a meeting of the directors an assessment of 100 per cent was made to provide a full treasury while the fight is on. On the present capitalization of the club, this will give an additional available fund of $10,000.

It was also decided to ask the directors of the Pacific Coast League to abolish the schedule of games for the coming season already adopted and so revise it that the dates of the proposed rival club in Los Angeles should be paralleled by those of the present club. This action was taken because of the statement that the new club intended to play its games here during the absence in the north of the Pacific Coast League team.

MOTAIR FACTORY IN OAKLAND.

LIFE LONG IDEA OF F. R. PORTER IS SOON TO BE IN CONCRETE FORM.

This city is to be the site for a commodious "motair" factory. F. R. Porter has filed plans with the Patent Office for a motair (a word of his coinage), or flying-machine. He constructed the term "motair" from the two words aero, meaning air, and motor.

His proposed flying machine is modeled, in some particulars, after the airship, designed by him, and illustrated in the cartoon regarding the Mayoral fight, recently presented in THE TRIBUNE. According to his idea the "motair" will generate its own power for levitation and propulsion. It will carry passengers and light freight, and is to be built in style and material as compactly and buoyantly as a duck. "motair" is to be put on the market by a stock company, and incorporation articles, fixing the capital at a sum up in the thousands, are being prepared. There is now a flying machine in course of construction at San Francisco, and an airship projected by a Pleasanton inventor is said to have won the favor of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst. A complete model of the F. R. Porter "motair" is to be submitted for the approval of TRIBUNE readers as soon as a suitable photograph can be procured and an engraving prepared for press use. Mr. Porter is not at all skeptical as to the mechanical ability of his "motair."

Alfred A. Howlett, one of Syracuse's wealthy citizens, celebrated his 82d birthday by giving a reception to 150 widows, from 4 to 8 p. m. on Tuesday. The whole function was in charge of women. Women did the cooking, served the menu, furnished the music, had charge of the carriages, and Mr. Howlett was the only man present, with the exception of his grandson and a colored youth, who was stationed at the door. He is a widower, personally acquainted with all but three of his guests, and knew the husbands of the latter.

A man at Guelma, in Algeria, has taken out a patent for the manufacture of casks in corkwood. An interior coating isolates the contents from contact with the cork. A barrel of eleven gallons weighs thirty pounds instead of eighty pounds, the weight of a wooden cask of the same capacity. Cork being a bad conductor of heat and cold, the necessity of adding alcohol for the preservation of wine will be unnecessary, and the liquid will no longer be subject to the fluctuation of temperature. In warm climates these casks might be useful for conveying ice, meat, fish or fruits. There will be a great saving on freightage, heat will not warp the staves and the hoops will not slip out of place.

DECIDED BY THE HIGHEST COURT

CASE IS REVERSED AND SENT BACK FOR A NEW TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The United States Supreme Court rendered its opinion in an Inter-State Commerce case in which the Elkins Act, passed at the last session of Congress, was dealt with.

The case was that of the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company vs. the United States, involving a question of discrimination upon the part of the railroad company as between places.

It was brought at the instance of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, but without any previous proceedings on the part of the Commission. The railroad filed a demurrer to the bill challenging the regularity of the proceedings but the Circuit Court and the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit held the proceedings to be regular and decided the case in favor of the contention of the United States.

These decisions were reversed by today's opinion which was delivered by Justice White.

He said by the terms of the old law, under which the case was tried, the proceeding would not have been regular, but under the Elkins law, it would have been.

The court therefore reversed and sent the case back for a new trial, under the Elkins law.

ORDINANCE NO—

AN ORDINANCE ACCEPTING THE BEQUEST BY THE LATE BUSHROD WASHINGTON JAMES TO THE CITY OF OAKLAND OF THE PROPERTY KNOWN AS BUSHROD PARK SUBJECT TO THE LIMITATIONS AND CONDITIONS SET FORTH IN THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF SAID BUSHROD WASHINGTON JAMES, DECEASED.

Whereas, The late Bushrod Washington James, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, did by a provision in his last will and testament, bearing date the 19th day of August A. D. 1900, duly proved before the Register of Wills at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, provide inter Alia as follows:

"I give and devise to the City of Oakland, Alameda County, in the State of California, my entire lot of ground now known as Bushrod Park in the City of Oakland, which I purchased from John W. Brumagin in the year 1870 and 1871 by deeds duly recorded in the county aforesaid, commencing at a stake in the private road between the lands now or late of Canning and said John W. Brumagin, at the corner common to lands of Julia Racine and said Brumagin, containing six acres and sixty-nine hundredths of an acre of land and also all that certain lot or piece of land beginning at a point in the center of the Shattuck road, at the southwest corner of the last described lot, containing sixty-eight hundredths of an acre of land to be maintained as a public park, forever to be called as aforesaid, Bushrod Park.

Provided the said City of Oakland shall lay out and properly adorn said lot and keep it enclosed or otherwise neatly embordered and maintained at all times in good condition for the use of the public for the purpose aforesaid. Provided further that the said City of Oakland shall not at any time sell or dispose of said lot of ground, place any incumbrance thereon, nor allow any such to accummulate or be filed against the same, nor any charge or liability for the payment of any sum of money for improvements, adornments, paving, curbing, gas, sewer, water, electric, street, or any other such charges or assessments whatsoever to become a lien upon said lot.

Provided further that no prison, penal institution, house of correction, or alms house, or any building for contagious or infectious disease of any kind, nor any building objectionable to the public or neighborhood, shall at any time be erected upon said lot or any part thereof, but said city may erect upon a suitable portion of said lot, not exceeding one-half of the area thereof, a public library properly maintained, a home for children, or the aged, or an institution of learning, if not of an objectionable nature, nor as hereinbefore restricted, such institution, however, if such shall be erected, shall retain the name Bushrod Park prefixed to its name. But a portion of said lot as aforesaid sufficient and necessary for such purpose shall be kept open and not built upon, as a public park forever.

And provided also that the said City of Oakland shall in writing signify its acceptance of said lot subject to said conditions to my executor within one year from the date of my decease.

And I direct my executor to notify said City of Oakland of this devise subject to said conditions as soon after the probate of my will as practicable. And should the said City of Oakland fail to accept as aforesaid the said lot of ground subject to said conditions within the time herein specified, after having received due notice of the same as aforesaid or having so accepted said lot subject to said conditions, if it shall at any time hereafter violate any of the conditions of said devise or if the said devise shall at any time become otherwise inoperative, I give and devise the said lot of ground to my trustee in fee in trust for the Bushrod Washington James Eye and Ear Institute aforesaid, for use in connection with the permanent or endowment fund of said institute hereby created."

WASHINGTON AS A WRITER.

Jefferson has been styled the great American letter writer, but George Washington appears to have equaled him in extent an variety of correspondence. Washington did not write much about politics and philosophy, but his busy pen ran for a lifetime on all public and private questions that touched him. In his address at the University of Pennsylvania Dr. S. Wier Mitchell dwelt particularly on Washington's prodigious industry as a letter writer. He brought this in apropos because his theme was the character of George Washington as revealed in his writings.

"He was the most productive of American writers," said Dr. Mitchell. In all he has left about 19,000 letters, to say nothing of those that have been lost or destroyed. The Ford collection comprises fourteen volumes—8,000 pages in all. There are 3,000 documents, some 2,000 from his own hand. Through all his writings the methodical care and serene judgment, the keen attention to detail, for which he is celebrated, is noticed.

Dr. Mitchell points out as an evidence of Washington's self control, deliberation and thoroughness the fact not a line he ever wrote bears any trace of haste. The signature is always the same and the writing is clear and distinct—every "i" is dotted and every "t" crossed. Speaking of the varied character of the correspondence, Dr. Mitchell said:

"Here are letters to Congress, long and well-weighed documents. Here are endless pages to his overseers; letters to his generals, to his opponents, Howe and Clinton. Among them is one on a courteous note restoring Sir William's dog, which has his name on his collar and has deserted to our lines. That dog could not have expected better diet from his disloyalty.

"He writes to his niece and stepdaughter as to courtship and the choice of a husband. He gives counsel as to unselfishness, good temper and helpfulness. He has something to say about dress and neatness and housekeeping.

"His letters to nephews and others deal with hours, lessons, clothes, debts and exercise. He declares quaintly that 'gambling is the child of avarice, the brother of iniquity, and the father of mischief.' He bids his stepson to be courteous to all and intimate with few. We seem to hear a wiser Polonius, or better, an echo of the noble letter of Henry Sidney to his son Philip. These volumes, in fact constitute a treatise on the Conduct of Life.

"We have his opinions on numberless matters concerning war, politics and social life. We hear what he thought of slavery, of his detestation of dueling, of how to plant clover, of breeding dogs and horses, and of canals and the new steamboats.

"There are but two letters to his wife. She destroyed the rest—a wise act, I think, or, perhaps, it was he who wisely counseled her. Those letters must have told her many things it were well to let die. Nevertheless, we get very near to the heart of the man in his letters."

Dr. Mitchell, who is himself a distinguished surgeon, says it is a marvel to physicians how Washington ever found time to write so much, for he was busy in active pursuits all his life. His business interests were large, and he gave them his close personal attention. He kept an extensive system of accounts, studied to improve the methods of agriculture, took a lively interest in the repair of the public roads and was a working member of the vestry of St. George's church in Alexandria. He gave much thought to the moral condition of the slaves. In addition to being the largest planter in America he engaged in trade and loaded ships with tobacco for export. Yet nothing that went on in any part of the country escaped him, and neither illness nor absorption in business or public duties ever caused him to neglect his correspondence. He was able to get through it because he read few books and never wasted time. As his panegyrist points out, no man that ever lived gave such personal attention and solicitude to every matter of daily concern, both great and small, from repairing the steps of the town hall to the most momentous question of public policy. He was the finest type of the citizen that the world has ever produced.

Two of the most common names in America are missing from the roll call of the new Senate. Of the whole ninety Senators there is not a Jones or a Smith. The Jones family had two members of the last Senate, both old members, but they both retired at the close of the session. Jones of Arkansas was beaten for re-election after eighteen years' service, and Jones of Nevada voluntarily retired from office after sitting in the Senate for thirty years—one of the few men who ever equaled Benton's record. Both the retiring veterans have been succeeded by able men, more youthful and energetic. Newlands will be a worthy successor to Jones of Nevada, while former Governor Clarke promises to be an improvement on Jones of Arkansas.

MRS. OELRICHS' TAXES.

Mrs. Theresa Oelrichs, daughter of the late Senator Fair, has evaded paying taxes on $1,500,000 worth of personal property assessed in New York by swearing that her residence is in San Francisco. By making this oath she evades paying personal property taxes in either New York or San Francisco. Yet she has a fortune of several millions of dollars, and is well able to pay taxes.

Now Mrs. Oelrichs does not reside in San Francisco and has not resided in that city for a dozen years or more. That is a fact so notorious as to require no exemplification.

Then what are we to think of her sworn veracity? A person who tells a falsehood wittingly and with a purpose is justly stigmatized as a liar. The law denominates those who make oath knowingly to what is not true as perjurers, and makes the offense a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Mrs. Oelrichs swears she resides in San Francisco when she does not to escape paying taxes on property that she undoubtedly possesses. The motive, then, for her untruthfulness is no better than dishonest greed, for she owes the taxes justly, and can only escape payment by parading her inveracity to the public.

She beat the tax gatherer, but she didn't deceive anybody. The world is acquainted with the fact that she told a falsehood to escape paying what she legally and righteously owed the State of New York. Yet her case is not exceptional. She only did what hundreds of rich men—the richest in the country—do habitually. The sanctity of an oath is nothing compared to saving a relatively small sum by people who are rolling in wealth. The law and the obligations of citizenship are openly derided, and for what? To save money for people who spend $10,000 on a single entertainment or pay $1,000 for a new dress or a lapdog. This sudden accumulation of vast fortunes seems to be sapping patriotism and respect for law as it is sapping truth and morality and religion.

Yet the father of Mrs. Oelrichs once worked for $4 a day with a pick and shovel as a common miner and her mother, as a girl, waited on the table of a miners' boarding house. The daughter of this pair flaunts silks and diamonds in the ostentatiously rich and fashionable society of New York and Newport, but is not above telling lies and refusing to pay her taxes.

THE LEGISLATURE'S WORK.

Notwithstanding the sharp criticism the present Legislature was subjected to in the early days of the session, it has developed into a hard-working and conscientious legislative body. It has taken up a number of public questions of more than passing moment and acted on them intelligently. Of course some mistakes have been made, but the work this session has been good in the main and deserves commendation.

It has been the fashion of late years to sneer at the Legislature and to decry its work. So fixed has this habit of detraction begun that the Legislature scarcely assembles before the vials or rather the ink pots of denunciation are opened. The motives of members are assailed in advance of action, and they are blamed for things it is assumed they will do. It is needless to say this tends to lessen the average legislator's sense of responsibility to the public and to weaken public confidence in representative government.

At the beginning of the present session the Legislature was given a severe overhauling for extravagance in the matter of attaches. There was ground for complaint, it is true, but the importance of the matter was grossly exaggerated, and the criticism speedily degenerated into indiscriminate condemnation because it was easier to damn the whole business than it was to make candid inquiry to ascertain how much wrong there was and who was to blame for it.

However, little unfavorable criticism of the Legislature is now heard. The clamor about the attaches has died away, and the Legislature has so clothed itself in an atmosphere of downright hard work that the comparatively small delinquency at the beginning of the session is lost sight of. The Legislature having proved itself an industrious and effective working body, is entitled to the commendation of the public. Its work will compare favorably with the work of any Legislature the past two decades. It is superior to most of the Legislatures of recent years.

Philadelphia is talking about building a "Christian theater" to keep company with the model newspaper that Dr. Parkhurst talks of starting in New York. No doubt its stage presentations will be as vividly interesting as the average church fair. How a theater is to be successful that ignores the play and fruits of the great passions which have been made human history one long tragedy can only be explained by those who believe there is plenty of excitement and entertainment in sitting still and being good—like a clam at a Sunday picnic.

POTTER CASE SETTLED.

The expelling of William Potter from the Painters' Union of Schenectady, New York, because he would not resign from the National Guard when his regiment was called out to suppress strike disorders aroused more feeling in the country against the trades unions than anything that has happened in a long time, but the matter has finally been settled in accordance with public sentiment and public policy by the union reinstating Potter. It was an issue that should never have been made. It struck patriotic sentiment like a whiplash, for if citizens would have to obtain the consent of their unions before performing military service in behalf of the government, the power of the government to sustain itself would be destroyed.

Doubtless the Painters' Union forbade Potter to join his regiment when called out under stress of popular feeling, and raised an issue of the most revolutionary character without realizing the gravity in the import of the action.

By receding from an untenable position foolishly and hastily taken the union averted a judicial decision as to its power to expel a member on such a ground, a decision that a great many people would like to see rendered. Potter instituted legal proceedings to prevent his name being stricken from the rolls, and there is little doubt that he would have gained his case, for it is a fundamental axiom of the courts that the structure of the body politic must be maintained at all hazards. In this particular case the right of the individual citizen was bound up with the right of the State to demand military service of the citizen. It had only one side.

Senator Quay has exhibited a delicacy that people who do not know him would hardly expect. He declined to vote on the question of taking up the Littlefield anti-trust bill on the ground that he owned stock in various corporations known as trusts. He was the only member of the Senate that exhibited this nice sense of official responsibility. Yet not a few Senators are popularly supposed to be identified in a financial way with trusts. In some cases the identification is a notorious fact. It would be well if they would emulate the frankness and delicacy of the Pennsylvania Senator, who is generally regarded as the apotheosis of practical politics in the worst sense of the term.

The Fresno Republican says there is no such thing as the average man. The term is a mere mathematical abstraction. Particularly is this true as regards "the average newspaper man" of which so much is written. He does not exist. Newspaper men are all of odd sizes, and cannot be averaged. That is, the real newspaper men. There are others.

A St. Louis paper says the police of that city are impartial in extending protection to all classes of society. It says virtue and vice both pay for protection and get it. Circumstances indicate that the police of other cities are equally impartial in such matters.

Thomas E. Canty, Town Trustee of Saratoga, New York, is dead of consumption. His claim to fame was due to the fact that he knew the Bible by heart. What makes this singular is that he was a Democrat.

The Supreme Court's restoration of the irrepressible Horace W. Philbrook to his place in the roll of attorneys may be likened to the act of the woman who married a persistent suitor to get rid of him.

Senator Morgan made no idle threat when he said he would talk the session out to prevent the Panama canal treaty being ratified. Experience has proved that he is always loaded for bore.

WALSH'S STRAIGHT TALK.

Perhaps Assemblyman Walsh was a trifle unparliamentary or possibly too suggestive in alluding to "Colonel Mazuma" in connection with the remarkable change of sentiment overnight on the Curtin irrigation bill, but why should the allusion have so stirred Assemblyman John on of Sacramento? What's he to Colonel Mazuma or Colonel Mazuma to him?

Sometimes Mr. Walsh's frankness is impolitic, and he sometimes makes mistakes, but he is a man of honesty and courage, and he has been trying to do his duty like a man. He has made a good representative, and will return home with the respect and confidence of his constituents. We have not always agreed with him, but we must give him credit for grit, sincerity and a desire to do the right thing.

As for the sudden change of front in the Assembly on the irrigation bill, it was unpleasantly suggestive. It was the most discreditable exhibition of the session, and puts several members in a disagreeable light. Hasty and harsh judgments are not always the best, and it is not always wise to place the worst construction on legislative acts. Nevertheless there are circumstances under which a sudden conversion from one side to the opposite incur reproach that is practically irremediable.

Men do sometimes change their minds quickly on important measures for perfectly honorable, if not sufficient reasons, but they are generally prepared to give them. But such changes are rare. They never come in groups, and when they are accompanied by no explanations beyond truculent denunciations of those who criticise them they inspire a depressing impression. If men do such things innocently they are to be pitied, for they are too verdant in legislative matters to protect their own reputations.

There is nothing inconsistent or hypocritical about Mr. Walsh. He has an honest scorn for venality and an earnest man's contempt for weakness and cowardice. His imprudences and mistakes will readily be forgiven, because it is plain that he is actuated by good motives and is trying to do right. He can safely leave the public to judge of the merits of his controversy with Mr. Johnson.

BUTTONS DOWN HER BACK.

When Mabel squeezes in a waist
That buttons down the back,
And then cries out, in pleading tones:
"Come here and help me, Jack."
I sigh for those delicious days—
Those days when I was free,
And Mabel never pleaded to
Be buttoned up by me.

Ah what a privilege would I
Have deemed it then to hear
Her cry: "Come, please, and help me with These dreadful buttons, dear!"
How gladly would I then have gone
And given her a smack
For each delightful button down
The row upon her back.

But things somehow don't thrill me now
As once they might have thrilled;
And oh the waists that Mabel wears
Are always amply filled!
My temper's warped my thumbs are sore,
My fingers ache, alack!
Confound these awkward, foolish waists
That button down the back!

FREE HOSPITAL FOR POOR JEWS.

Louisville Societies to Unite in the Establishment of a Charitable Man's Benefaction.

Louisville is to have a big free hospital for poor Jews. It practically will be the gift of Mr. Samuel Grabfelder, whose benefactions to his own people and others have made him widely known.

The offer to build the hospital came from Mr. Grabfelder some time ago. He said he was willing to give practically all the funds for establishing it if ohtre here would provide for the maintenance of the institution.

Immediately a canvass of the Jewish congregations and societes was made. Each organization has agreed to do its share.

When asked about the matter Mr. Grabfelder said: "It is true that I have made the offer to pay the major part of the expense of building a hospital for poor Jews. I merely want the various societies here to unite for its organization and maintenance, and I hope this can be done. There is certainly need of such an institution."

Mr. Grabfelder has given liberally to Jewish charity in various sections. His largest gift heretofore was $15,000 to the Jewish Hospital for consumptives at Denver. He is a member of the board of directors of that institution, which is open to both Jews and Gentiles. He is also a director of the Jewish orphan asylum at Cleveland, O. Mr. Grabfelder is one of Louisville's leading distillers and whisky merchants.—Louisville Times.

WHO SINGS A SONG.

Who sings a song
Should sing it to himself and not the throng—
Else shall he wake to find the fickle morn
Full flooded with the world's contempt and scorn.

Who sings a song
Should sing it to his heart when nights are long—
Sing it to lull a grief or ease joy's stress
So shall it give another happiness.

Sing some sweet joy
That budded in thy heart without alloy—
And made existence sweet; so shall thy strain
Be fraught with glory when it comes again.

Sing of some silent mood
That lit thy soul with dreams in solitude—
Thy song shall wing its way to some poor heart
And be of some sun-sweetened life a part.

So shall thy song abide
Thyself not caring what to it betide—
And to man's heart a heritage shall be—
Dropping an anchor to posterity.

PASTOR SAYS HE HAD THREE PROPOSALS.

Rev. L. Mahone Declares He Sees Much to Condemn in the Young Woman of Today.

Rev. Luther D. Mahone, pastor of the Thirty-fourth Methodist Church, in his sermon last evening, spoke for the benefit of the young ladies of his congregation. The subject was, "Why Women Do Not Get Married." He said that since coming to California he has had three flat-footed proposals for marriage, and for the penalty of talking to a young woman for ten minutes he came very near having a breach of promise suit, and this is not leap year. In part he said:

"The American women is restless, dissatisfied. Society, whether among the four hundred or of the lowest class, has driven her toward a destiny that is not normal. The factories are full of old maids; the colleges, the ball rooms and even our churches have their stigma of 'old maids,' or in our modern day phraseology 'bachelor girls.' For natural obligations for which she was created are substituted the fictitious duties of clubs, committees, societies, etc., a thousand unwomanly occupations.

CONDEMNS OUR COURTS AND SOCIETY.

"We condemn polygamy, the uses of the harem, yet we stand by and witness every day in our courts and society scenes that are just as degrading and degrading relative to the promiscuous use of divorce. More and more do people, especially in these Western States, look upon marriage as a civil contract and approach it almost with no more idea as to its sacredness than if there were no God. In times past and in most places so many customs are these moments named a be sacred, a marriage, that men wish to associate these events with a divine friend. But divorce has become so common that it is a matter of joke, that the Mormons drive their wives abreast and the Gentiles drive them tandem. I have had it said to me a number of times recently by prospective brides: 'If I don't like him I can leave him.' No young woman with any self-respect, who is endeavoring to build a home, can give her consent to wed such a being who would ruin him and his future success.

STARVING PROCESS.

"In the early days of England it was customary with the ladies to practice a bleeding process before going out into society in order that they might look pale and not appear in their robust state in which they might be. That day has passed. Good health is one of the essentials of a married life. There are but few men who desire to marry an invalid, unless it be a young physician who wants to start a hospital. Doctor's bills are not a thing of joy to the young husband.

"Instead of the bleeding process of old we have the starving process which makes invalids of many women. Go into any restaurant and see what the women eat. They do not eat enough to keep a canary bird in first class condition. How about dress? A rustling sou-trot will announce silk under-fittings. Feathers, garlands of flowers, masses of trimming weighing down their broad brimmed picture hats, fancy veils, kid gloves, silver side bags, embroidered blouses and elaborate belt buckles are but a few of the details of the showy costumes. Their lunches—tea and buns and cake and other light delicacies; and they will eat this with great liberty and daintiness. Getting up from the table they must consult the mirror, adjusting the trash with which they have bedecked their exteriors, while their poor, hard-working systems go unfed. If women would put a little more food into their stomachs and not so much cheap finery on their backs, we would have stronger women and more of them would find good homes.

CONDEMNS DRINKING.

"There is another class of young women who go brutally into passionate pleasures, follow the shows, read the dill-boards, drink and knock about with the boys. They say they want experience, and they usually get it before they end their careers. It is enough to make any young man shudder, or despair lady, when we reflect that more than one-half of the patrons of the saloons of San Francisco after the hour of 11 o'clock at night are women. I do not make this statement unadvisedly. The dance halls, beer gardens, concert halls and private booths are full of women, and they are usually 'full' of bad whiskey. While San Francisco cannot compare in many respects with Chicago in downright meanness, yet she is by no means among the best of cities."

The speaker spoke of the many reasons why young men could not marry under the existing conditions of things, and closed with a high tribute to womankind—her power and influence and the wonderful sphere that she may occupy if frank and honest and true.

POPE IN GOOD HEALTH AGAIN.

BOY DIES FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

BIT HIS MOTHER WHILE RAVING, AND IT IS FEARED SHE IS INFECTED.

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—Henry Wehrhahn, a 6-year-old boy, is dead from hydrophobia. Eight weeks ago the boy was bitten in the lip and nose by a dog he was trying to drive away from his pet spaniel. The wounds were cauterized and began to heal. A week ago young Wehrhahn became ill and a physician was called in. On his second visit the doctor declared the lad was suffering from hydrophobia and advised that he be taken to the Pasteur Institute. This was done, but it was too late. Fears are entertained that the boy's mother has been infected with the germs of the disease. During his ravings he bit her on the hand as she was offering him food.

PARLIAMENT AT STANDSTILL.

COLONIAL SECRETARY MUST BE CONSULTED BEFORE BODY CAN PROCEED.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Mr. Chamberlain's return is anxiously awaited, cables the London representative of the Tribune. So far as actual business is concerned, the government is almost at a standstill in Parliament because the Colonial Secretary, who is the main spring of the cabinet, must be consulted before any leading items of legislative progress can be introduced and before Mr. Ritchie can put on the finishing touches on his budget.

It is evident from the speeches delivered by Mr. Chamberlain in South Africa that certain grants will have to be made which were not anticipated when he left England last November and the Chancellor of the Exchequer must make provision for them in his budget. The Irish land bill will involve a big demand upon the public purse and it is only natural that the government should require to consult its strong man on the policy to be embodied in that measure before it is introduced in the House of Commons. The result of the indulgence which the members are now enjoying will be a congestion of work at the end of the session and a liberal use of the closure to stop discussion.

ENGLISH JEALOUS OF THE STATES

DEVELOPMENT OF THE AMERICAN TRADE IN COLONIES CAUSES ALARM.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The development of American trade in the British colonies is watched with a jealous eye by many people in this country, says a London dispatch to the Tribune. Complaints are raised that Americans have monopolized the markets of Malta for flour and oil to the disadvantage of British trade. Formerly these articles reached Malta from London, Liverpool and Hull, but the cheaper prices quoted from New York have ousted the British goods. This result is attributed to the direct steamship service inaugurated last year.

The outlook in connection with the Canadian trade is an engrossing subject of discussion in Bristol. At an early date the Canadian Pacific Railway will, it is stated, open a branch office there and it is understood that the Grand Trunk line will follow it, so that the port will soon be receiving to an unprecedented degree from two rival organizations of far-reaching influence.

SOCIAL NEWS ABOUT THE SMART SET.

Miss Kendall to Give a Luncheon—Weddings Set for the Future—The Ebell Luncheon.

Miss Isabel Kendall of this city will give a luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Miss Frances Harris. Miss Kendall, who has attended most of the dances this season, is very pretty and fetching and has a host of admirers on both sides of the bay.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

An announcement of interest is that of the engagement of Miss Lillian Corinne Benjamin and Harry G. Miller, two well known young people of Oakland. The engagement has been an open secret for some time, and many pretty little affairs have been planned in honor of the bride to be, but a severe illness, from which she is just recovering, will prevent Miss Benjamin from taking any active part in social life between now and her wedding day. The marriage will be solemnized some time in April and will be a quiet home affair.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. A. G. Benjamin of East Oakland. Mr. Miller is a son of the George Millers who live on Thirteenth street, near the lake, and is engaged in business with his father in San Francisco.

THE CRYSTAL CLUB.

The Crystal Club held a meeting at the Albany Hotel Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Fisher being the host and hostess. At the conclusion of the usual games of whist a dainty supper was served in the hotel dining room, where the tables were set in the form of a Greek cross and prettily decorated with smilax and violets. The regular club prizes, complimentary trophies given by the hostess, were won by Mrs. Mehrmann and Dr. Fine. The club's guests last evening were Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Mehrmann, Dr. Pauline Nusbaumer, Dr. and Mrs. A. Fine and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Schultze. The members are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Craft, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Curtiss, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lamance, Mr. and Mrs. Welles Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Scott and Charles King.

EBELL LUNCHEON.

At the Ebell luncheon next Tuesday Mrs. H. A. Powell will be chief hostess and the musical program will be in charge of Mrs. W. H. Quinn. The numbers are all particularly promising, as such well known musicians as Mrs. Orrin Kip McMurray, Miss Florence Juilleral and Miss Bertha Hunter will contribute them. A piano selection will be given by Miss Hunter and Mrs. McMurray will sing "Orpheus With His Lute," by A. S. Sullivan. "Thou Lovest Me Not," by Ernest Carter, will be sung by Miss Juilleral, who will also sing Alfred Gaul's pretty little duet "April," with Mrs. McMurray.

At a business meeting of the club last Tuesday the remaining members of the nominating committee were elected and the complete committee as it now stands includes: Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mrs. A. A. Denison, Mrs. Prentiss Selby, Mrs. Albert B. Smith, Mrs. G. A. Willard, Mrs. Ralph Kinney and Mrs. E. C. von Helms.

WILL SOON MARRY.

One of the interesting weddings of this month will be that of Miss Gertrude Church, daughter of T. R. Church of 1016 Franklin street, San Francisco, and Charles F. Jackson, a nephew of Francis Cutting of this city. Cards have been sent out announcing the wedding for Saturday evening, March 21, at the First Unitarian Church, the Rev. Dr. Leavitt officiating. The bride will have but one attendant, Miss Henrietta Moffatt, and William Van Alen will act as best man. The ushers are to be William Wood, Robert Porter, William Olney of Oakland and Alvin Leventritt.

INFORMAL GATHERING.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Lamb was the scene of an informal gathering on Tuesday evening, the twentieth anniversary of their wedding. The house was prettily decorated and a musical program was enjoyed, after which an elaborate supper was served to the guests, congratulatory toasts being given by Rev. Alfred Bailey, Dr. S. H. Buteau and Dr. Lewis Emerson.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Buteau, Mr. and Mrs. F. Buteau, Mr. and Mrs. Ifeult, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Little, Mrs. Goodrich, Miss Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Randolph, Mrs. Clayton Armes, Miss Armes, Dr. L. M. Emerson, Mrs. M. A. Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mount, Miss Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Randolph, the Misses Goff, Mr. and Mrs. C. Irvine, Jesse McCarger, Harvey Mount, Frank Goff, Mr. and Mrs. Leiter and Mr. and Mrs. Shaw.

UTOPIAN CLUB.

The Utopian Club, the organization of Jewish young men recently organized in this city, is already beginning to make itself prominent in the social and literary activities of this city. A few months ago a ball was given, which proved to be one of the social functions of the season. As a part of the literary work of the society Dr. David Starr Jordan, president of the Stanford University, will address the club and its friends next Wednesday evening, March 11, at 8 o'clock, in the Y. M. C. A. Building. The subject, "The Call of the Twentieth Century," is one that will certainly appeal to the young men. A large audience is expected to greet Dr. Jordan upon this occasion. As applications for invitations have been eagerly sought by the general public, it has been arranged that they may be obtained at Lissner's jewelry store, 1108 Washington street; L. Rittigstein, 271 Broadway; M. Schneider, Ninth and Washington streets. These cards admit the bearer free of charge.

BISHOP MOORE TELLS ABOUT FUTURE IN ORIENT.

Bishop of Shanghai Delivers an Interesteng Address at the First Methodist Church.

Bishop David H. Moore, resident Bishop of Shanghai, China, arrived in Oakland from the East on Friday evening and preached yesterday at the morning service of the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

Seated on the rostrum with the bishop was Rev. J. H. Hammond of San Francisco, presiding elder of the Chinese district; Dr. Coyle, Rev. J. B. Smythe, who was for twenty years missionary to China, and Dr. E. R. Lille, pastor.

Bishop Moore believes implicitly in a progressive future of China and gave a very interesting talk on this subject. In part he said:

"China lies athwart the world's thought today. It is the center of the greatest world movement of the century. There never has been a mountain chain high enough to stay the tides of the world's progress. The waters back up until they at last break over all barriers. Today the tides of modern thought and progress are dashing their spray over the wall that has so long hemmed China in, and that spray is being thrown upon the robes of the Empress Dowager herself.

"China is interesting because of its venerable antiquity. It has heard the birthcry of the greatest nations of the past and it has heard their deathwail and it still lives.

"It is interesting because of the vast numbers of people who toil and suffer and die under Chinese skies. Every third person on earth is a subject of the Chinese empire; when this inert mass once is set in motion through the impact of modern civilization its movement will be irresistable. The Chinese empire is interesting because of its vast material resources. Under the deadening paralysis of Chinese superstition and conservatism these resources are yet untouched. But the soil of China though tilled for thousands of years has its virgin productiveness still; there are mountains of iron ore lying alongside of mountains of limestone for a flux for the metal, and besides mountains of hard and soft coal. The mineral resources of China are such that they would make this nation rich if they were within its borders, and these resources are on the eve of development. That the character of the people of China should impress us. We hear it said sometimes, 'Oh, these Cantonese! You must not judge China by the Cantonese coolies who come to our shores.'" The bishop declared that he was quite willing to have the Chinese judged by the Cantonese. Even the coolies themselves appear upon our police reports and our prison records less often relatively to their numbers than men of any other race; they are frugal and industrious; they have their own vices, it is true, but they keep them to themselves.

"Do not forget that Wu Ting Fang, the consummate power of Oriental courtesy and diplomacy, the accomplished scholar, the polished man of the world to whom we were all 'kowtowing' a little while ago, was a Cantonese and that his successor now on his way hither is a Cantonese."

The bishop closed his address by a rapid and graphic review of the missionary work of the Methodist Episcopal Church in China and stated that though it is only fifty-six years old it is as hopeful and flourishing as any mission field in the world. He referred feelingly to the 3000 Methodist converts in the North China Mission who laid down their lives for the religion of Jesus Christ, when by burning a stick of incense to an idol they might have saved their lives. He mentioned also the graduates of American schools who had lucrative positions as interpreters with the Allies, receiving from $50 to $100 per month, and who, as soon as the Boxer uprising was quelled, went back to their missionary work and labored for from $5 to $10 per month, freely renouncing the more lucrative positions. The reproach of "rice Christians" has had its day in the mission fields in China.

A few months after his election to the bishopric he was called to the Eastern Asia district, with headquarters at Shanghai, being its first resident bishop of the First Methodist Episcopal denomination. He has shown himself equal to every emergency, including the trying times during the Boxer outbreak in China.

UNIONS COMBINE AT CHICAGO.

FREIGHT HANDLERS WILL ASK FOR SHORTER HOURS AND MORE WAGES.

CHICAGO, March 9. — Fourteen unions whose members are engaged in the handling and transportation of freight have formed a central body to be called the Shipping Trades Federation. The new organization is for mutual aid and protection and will control over 20,000 men, most of whom are preparing to demand shorter hours and increased wages.

The federation includes every union man who handles freight from the time it leaves the factories or wholesale houses until it goes out of the switch yards or is loaded on the lake steamers. Its members are employed by the wholesale houses, railroads, or boat lines.

The primary object of the federation is to have a central body that can take up all matters of dispute between unions and the companies and adjust them more satisfactorily than if it were done by outside persons.

The federation will have the following unions enrolled as members:

Teamsters' National, Longshoremen, Seamen, Railway Express Drivers, Merchandise Packers, Wholesale Drug Employes, Commission Merchants, Helpers, Freight Handlers, Railway Clerks, Wholesale Grocery Employes, Box Makers and Sawyers.

William Murray of the Railway Expressmen has been elected president of the federation, which has received the indorsement of President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor.

BODIES NOT RECOVERED.

GLENNS FALLS, N. Y., March 9.—No more bodies of those drowned in Saturday's ferry boat accident at Spier Falls have been recovered. The known dead number three and the missing fourteen, all Italians.

PREPARING FOR EXPEDITION.

BALDWIN-ZEIGLER CREW WILL BE COMPOSED ENTIRELY OF AMERICANS.

NEW YORK, March 9.—On their way to Tromsoe, Norway, where the Zeigler Arctic Steamship America has been tied up since the return of the Baldwin-Zeigler polar expedition a year ago, Captain Edwin Coffin, with two officers and a crew of twelve men, have arrived here from New Bedford and Boston. They will leave on Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse for Bremen.

Captain Coffin said that this early start was in order to "Americanize the America."

"You know, the ship before had a Norwegian crew and captain," he said. "Now every man on board will be an American citizen, and there will be twenty-two of us in the navigation department of the expedition. Extensive changes are to be made in the ship, which I believe will be for the best and along the lines of the Yankee way of doing things. Mr. Fiala, who is to head the expedition, expects me to push the Americana far north as possible, and if we are at all favored, I hope to sail along until we have reached a point equal to that reached by the Duke d'Abruzzi. We shall probably strike north in July for Franz Josefland, and from there the best way that opens up. After Mr. Fiala and the scientists have been carried as far north as we can take them, the prospecting expedition will be landed and we shall seek winter quarters."

ASKING QUESTIONS.

An Inquiry Changed a Man's Whole Life.

When you get a man to recognize that his bad feelings come from improper food and that he can get well by using scientific food, the battle is half won. One of New York's business men says:

"I was troubled for a long time with indigestion, headache and stomach trouble, and had taken various medicines but with no good results. I concluded to see how a change of food would affect me. I never cared particularly for cereals of any kind, but ate meat and pastry continually and drank coffee.

"I found on inquiring that Grape-Nuts were highly spoken of and decided to give them a trial. To say I was surprised at the result would not begin to do justice to my feelings. My headaches left me; my brain became clearer and active; my attacks of indigestion grew fewer and fewer until they ceased entirely, and where I once went home tired, fagged out and indisposed to any exertion whatever, I now found a different state of affairs.

"My color was good, my muscles strong and firm and fully equal to anything I asked of them, instead of soft and flabby. I live two miles from my business and walk it daily back and forth, if the weather permits. I am 55 years old and feel as well and strong as when I was 30, and can ride 10 miles a day on a bicycle without feeling any bad results." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich

TEXT BOOK LOBBY AT THE CAPITAL.

Trying to Beat Bills for State Books —Some Interesting Gossip From the Legislature.

SACRAMENTO, Mar. 9.—One of the strongest lobbies in the Legislature today is that composed of representatives of Eastern book houses who are endeavoring to defeat the proposed bill which provides for the appointment of a standing committee of the State Board of Education for the purpose of getting out a series of school text books to take the place of the worthless books which are now used in the schools.

The presence of this lobby is considered an evidence of the desperate effort which the book ring has for years been making to get control of the text book business of this State. The effort in this instance is made in an attempt to prevent the passage of the bill in question. This is considered boldness personified, because at this writing the proponents of the measure, who have not been of one mind with regard to all its features, are now harmonized, and this cannot have other ... than a salutary effect upon their associates. This harmony has been shown by the amendments to the bill which removed all the objections made to the measure. In addition to this is the fact that Governor Pardee has time and again expressed himself in favor of the passage of the measure as it now reads, and his approval augurs well for the success of the bill.

LOBBYISTS ARE KNOWN.

The purpose of this lobby is known to a number of members, because they are striving to destroy the possibility of the State buying copyrights of Eastern school books and making them a part of an improved and perfect State series of school books.

Among these lobbyists is a man named Casper Hodgson, who represents the publishing house of Silver, Burdett & Co., J. H. Chacote who is connected with Heath & Co., T. H. Kirk and others. Kirk occupies the same house as the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and has sent circulars to a number of legislators and others, pointing out alleged defects in the bill, ostensibly in the interest of improving the measure, but in reality of defeating it in the interest of Eastern people. These communications have in a number of instances, have been mistaken as the effort of the present State Superintendent of Schools in opposition to the measure. The fact is, however, that the Superintendent in question has had nothing to do with them and is, in fact, strongly in favor of the bill. This communication has also been published in some papers, but it falls of effect when the purpose is understood. This Kirk has resided in this State for only a few years and, until recently, was a school teacher, his last position being at Monrovia in Los Angeles county.

A BIG DEFICIT.

The State Agricultural Society is $86,925.43 in debt. It is bankrupt, its real assets being $6.85 cash on hand. The expert who has furnished these figures to the Finance Committee of the Senate has added to the assets the alleged value of the State Fair grounds, which he fixes at $50,000. In the opinion of every one who has expressed an idea on the subject, the grounds in question have no such value. They could bring no such figure if sold for the purpose of liquidating the indebtedness, or turned over to the State by way of return for the money which the State has advanced and which it is now expected to advance again this year for the purpose of discharging the obligation. The fact is that the ground does not belong to the State Agricultural Society and could not, therefore, be realized on as security. Some of it belongs to the city of Sacramento, and the rest was donated by private citizens to be used free so long as the place was utilized for a fair ground. In the event of abandonment by or the disorganization of the society the land in greater part would revert to Sacramento.

LEGISLATURE FORCED TO HELP.

With this showing, the Senate has already voted $45,000 with which to pay off a part of the indebtedness, and the Finance Committee has reluctantly agreed to vote the organization $30,000 for the next two years, as one of the members said, "to enable the society to get further in the hole." This plan was distasteful to Senators Leavitt, Flint, Hahn and Luchsinger, but there was no alternative, as the Senators did not wish to assume the responsibility at this time for abolishing the society. Such a consummation, however, will be reached at the next session if the perennial drain by the organization be not stopped, and this the Senators have no hope will be accomplished.

WHERE DID THE MONEY GO?

The showing made to the committee exceeds by many thousands the maximum indebtedness reported by any of the officers of the association, who endeavored to give the committee an idea of the condition of the finances. The diversity of views was unsatisfactory, and finally an expert was set to work. And yet, startling as the report appears, the effort is not entirely satisfactory to the committee, because, while it sets forth the indebtedness, which is made up of a succession of yearly losses, it fails to tell where the money has gone—that is, the $15,000 a year which the society receives from the State and the gate receipts, which at some fairs have exceeded $40,000.

HOLD-OVER SENATORS TO INVESTIGATE.

The committee at length agreed to recommend to the Senate the appointment of a sub-committee of the Finance Committee, composed of hold-over Senators, who shall be at liberty to hire a man to expert more fully than has been done in this instance the books of the society for the last four years, as also the books of the next fair, to show where the money has gone in the past and how the money will be expended at the next fair, the payment for the work to come out of the contingent fund.

If a satisfactory showing be not made at the next Legislature, there will come an end to the Horticultural Society so far as a number of Senators are concerned.

LEAVITT ASKS WHERE THE MONEY WENT.

All the Senators of the committee, save Senator Devlin, who is a Sacramento man, expressed themselves in a vigorous manner about the way in which the enterprise had become such a burden to bear. Senator Leavitt, among other things, said:

"I want to know where the money went. They have spent $77,000 in two years. There must be a rat-hole some place. The expert has not gone into what was done with the money. Why not have a committee go to the Governor and inform him of the necessity of having this affair looked into. If they know that there is to be track kept of the finances, you are going to keep the money deficit down to a smaller sum. Here we have the most prosperous times we have had in California since 1895. Everybody has got money. And yet the receipts of the fair have fallen off and the revenues have decreased. If we refuse to pay what is asked for now, we will have all Sacramento here two years hence to try and have the indebtedness paid."

"I am willing to give them one more chance. They say, if we help them get out of debt they will be able to pay it back gradually in the future, and I will vote for the appropriation this year and for the resolution to expert the books past and future," said Senator Curtin.

WRANGLE OVER THE TIME FOR ADJOURNMENT.

The House for several days past has refused to consider code bills sent it by the Senate, because members claim the time before adjournment is too short to dispose of regular measures without paying attention to the codes.

Some Senators affect to believe that this argues disrespect for the upper house and suggest retaliation by continuing the session until March 21.

It is not likely, however, that the session will last longer than March 14, at which time the House has agreed to close business. At that time, however, there will be many bills on the files which will not be acted upon.

NEW LEGISLATION ALREADY POURS THOUSANDS INTO TREASURY.

The new law which was drafted by Secretary of State Curry relating the fees to be charged by him for filing articles of incorporation, has just gone into effect and, under it, the treasury of the State will be enriched by the liberal sum of $300,000 annually, which will represent an increase of about $170,000 above that of last year. This will represent also an increase of about $260,000 over the income received prior to the fee bill framed two years ago, also by Secretary of State Curry. The highest amount collected in the year prior to that time, was $35,000. Under the fee bill of two years ago, the receipts of the office were $133,000.

WHERE THE MONEY COMES FROM.

The principal change in the present bill over that of two years ago is in the fee exacted for filing incorporations of concerns having a capital of $1,000,00 or more than one million dollars, which is now one hundred dollars for each million. Under the fee bill of two years ago, the highest fee for any incorporation was $150.

The satisfactory result of this change was shown in the receipt of $5008 for the filing of the articles of the Western Pacific Railway Company, the Gould road. Friday last, when, under the old regime, the income of the State would have been only $150, although the capital of the company is $50,000,000.

DOUBLE RECEIPTS AND BENEFITS DERIVED.

The business of the office this year will be more than doubled, because, Secretary Curry says, business men understand the advantages of doing business in corporations rather than as individuals, because of the liberal laws of California. It is no use for them to go outside to incorporate, because if they do incorporate in some other State, they have to pay the same fee here later to be incorporated. Under the old law, under these circumstances, all they had to do was to designate an agent and pay $5.

WHERE THE MONEY WILL GO.

Secretary Curry says that every dollar of the receipts will be put to practical use, $2500 per month going into the State Library and the balance into the general fund. From this income there will be paid the extra allowance of $250,000 for the University of California, money for the library and the stationery, fuel and light expense of the Capitol.

DAN KEVANE OUTLINES PURPOSE IN POETRY AND PROSE.

There is no doubt that Dan Kevane, erstwhile Secretary of the State Board of Examiners under ex-Governor Gage and later, member of the Board of Bank Examiners, intends to make a contest for the seat on the latter organization, from which he was ousted by the law which was passed abolishing that commission.

Mr. Kevane will not admit this in so many words, but his intimations are strong, although he declares the time is not opportune to say what he will really do under the circumstances.

The question was put to Devane in a direct manner by the TRIBUNE correspondent, as to whether or not he proposed to make a fight in the courts to gain a place on the new Bank Commission, which it is proposed to organize, and after deliberation, which is characteristic, said:

"I am doing nothing and saying nothing as yet. I am, as Byron would term it, simply 'a looker-on in Venice.' But, at the same time, I come of fighting stock and when it is time to fight, I will be there."

As describing his present action and future purpose, Kevane said that he might again quote from Byron, and glibly rolled off several verses from "Mazeppa," showing the virtue of patience and the fruition of effort which followed it.

"I might," he continued, "also quote a little American doggerel:

'He dug a hole—he dug it deep;
He dug it for his brother;
He then himself fell in the hole,
That he had dug for brother.'

"They are trying to play football with me now, but when I begin to play I will show that I can play football and that I can kick a goal."

GOVERNOR PARDEE ASSENTS TO PAYING NOSLER $50,000.

Aged Tom Nosler of Berkeley will receive $50,000 for the work he has done in attempting to establish the claims of the State of California against the Government of the United States for the equipment of troops in the war of the Rebellion.

This has been decided on notwithstanding that Governor Pardee, a few days ago, vetoed the Nosler bill.

A bill to that effect was introduced in the Senate today by Senator Lardner as an urgency measure and will be rushed through both Houses as rapidly as possible.

The measure provides that Nosler shall be entitled to receive 25 per cent of any money collected by the Controller from the Federal Government up to and not exceeding $200,000. This sum, the National Government, will be soon ready to pay to the State, and when it is received, Nosler's commission will be taken out of it.

This commission will pay Nosler for his work in this matter for the past thirty years. Out of it, he must pay a number of claims standing against him, as a consequence of this work.

Governor Pardee has agreed to approve of a legal bill on this subject.

WILL TALK TO THE GOVERNOR ON THE ROLLEY BILLS.

Attorney Frank McGovan of San Francisco, a well-known corporation attorney, is coming here tomorrow to have a conference with Governor Pardee with the intent of trying to show his excellency why the Rolley bills should be signed and become laws. These bills practically place it within the power of a few officers of this State to grant right of way and control over the water front tide lands of Oakland to one railroad company to the exclusion of any other railroad, which might desire to enjoy their use for the purpose of reaching San Francisco or of establishing their terminals on the east side of the bay.

Governor Pardee has been looking into these bills ever since their passage. He has heard an expression on them of the views of members of the Legislature, who are opposed to the signing of the bills, and he is desirous of hearing the corporation side of the question.

FOSTER STUDYING NEED OF NEW POLICE COURT.

Assemblyman Foster of Oakland went to Oakland Friday night for the purpose of attending to private and professional business. He told the TRIBUNE correspondent that while he was there he would make inquiry as to the need of a second Police Court, which is now provided for in the Walsh bill which has passed the Senate and which is now pending in the House. If Assemblyman Foster should be impressed with the necessity of a second court of this kind, he will vote, he said, to establish it, despite the fact it has been urged that he has been influenced against the bill because of Governor Pardee's alleged opposition to the measure.

If Dr. Foster should decide to vote for the bill, it would leave Bliss as the only member of the Oakland delegation who is opposed to the measure, because Walsh and Mott have always favored it. Unless, however, Bliss also agrees to vote for the bill. Waste, Bates and Mattos, who are not residents of Oakland, will remain aloof, because they do not wish to mix up in Oakland matters.

HUXLEY AND FORD LOOKING FOR BUGS IN WATER BILLS.

During the night and morning session of the House recently, when the Curtin irrigation bill was under discussion, two of the most interested auditors were Attorney Thomas Huxley of Centerville and W. A. Ford, horticulturalist of Niles. Both had come here for the purpose of looking into the bills now on the files relating to water which might affect the interests involved in the suit, in which the Washington and Murray Township Irrigation Company, in Alameda County, has brought against the Spring Valley Water Company, and which has been on trial, off and on, before Judge Greene in Oakland, for more than a year. They were unable, however, to discover any measure which affected the property in question.

LOTTERY DECIDES ADVANCEMENT OF PET BILLS.

The House has decided to allow each member to select one of his bills to be placed on the special urgency file. The order in which Assemblymen were to make selections was determined by lot, and Bliss was given the first choice. That gentleman, however, was not present and his chance was passed. The same was true of a large number of members, whose selection will be made today.

THE LITTLE STATE AID FOR HALF-ORPHANS OF ALAMEDA.

Secretary Melick, of the State Board of Examiners, has prepared a showing of the money paid by the State to several counties for the maintenance of half-orphans, which is decidedly complimentary to the Supervisors as also indicative of the absence of needy youths in Alameda county. The table shows the money paid and the number of half-orphans aided as follows:

Alameda	$2204	130,000
Sacramento	6000	46,000
Los Angeles	3453	200,000
San Diego	558	35,000
Riverside	431	18,000
San Barbara	488	19,000
Santa Clara	2460	60,216
Fresno	1050	37,000
Sonoma	893	40,000
Humboldt	1165	27,000

This shows, among other things, that Alameda county receives one thousand dollars for every 60,000 of her population, while Sacramento county receives $1000 for each 7,600 of her population.

In this connection, Mr. Melick told the TRIBUNE correspondent that half-orphan reports of Alameda county are turned into his office in a very satisfactory manner.

WHERE MR. MELICK WILL REPRESENT THE GOVERNOR.

Governor Pardee has received a letter from "the sporting men of San Francisco," which has afforded him a great deal of amusement. The missive is written in a cramped style of chirography and has a careless phonetic method of orthography not quite so fixed as that of Nasby. It is, nevertheless, none the less entertaining. The letter congratulates the Governor on his election, and commends him for his failure to knock out boxing matches. For this signal service to the profession, the letter says the Governor will always be remembered. He is requested to call and meet his correspondents at Harry Corbett's or Zeke Abrams' place, at either of which he will be given a friendly reception. He will also be given a ticket to the fight and be placed on the first row outside the ring. A gentle suggestion is made that the call be not made on the night immediately preceding the fight, because his friends would be too busy then selling pools. The letter closes with the fervent hope that his excellency will be found on the first row on the night of the battle.

The Governor has done nothing touching the holding of glove contests because, thus far, no bill on the subject has come before him.

His excellency read the letter and passed it to Secretary Nye, with the statement that the latter might represent him on the night in question. Mr. Nye declined because of pressing engagements and passed the credentials to Executive Secretary Elston, who, in turn, passed it to Charles E. Snook, and who gave it to Charley Spear. But none of the gentlemen really had time to accept the honor. Today the Governor handed the letter to Secretary Melick, and that gentleman, after reading it, said:

"I'll represent you, there, Governor!"

PARDEE WILL VETO BILL FOR RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

In all probability, Senator Devlin's bill providing $20,000 for the improvement of the Sacramento river, will be vetoed by Governor Pardee. The work in question was to be done by the Board of Public Works, which was composed exclusively of Sacramento river men. San Joaquin river people wanted to get on the Board, so as to have their section represent, but only one man resigned to give them a chance. The Governor wanted both sections represented on the Board, but when he could not get it, he concluded that the measure ought not to be approved.

BOON TO SUFFERING HUMANITY

Prof. Finsen, the eminent scientist of Copenhagen, has made the discovery that will prove a panacea for Chronic and Skin Diseases, such as Lupus, Tuberculosis, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Gout, Kidney Troubles and Cancerous and Blood Diseases. So gratifying have been the results of this system of Medical Light Ray that His Royal Highness, the Crown Prince of Denmark, has introduced it to other Royal Families and is the personal protector of the Institute at Copenhagen. Her Majesty, Queen Olga of Greece, has presented the Hospital Evangelismos of Athens with a full equipment.

Her Royal Highness, the Princess of Wales (now Queen of England), after an investigation by Dr. Stephen McKensie, has presented a full equipment to the great London Hospital.

This treatment was taken by Pierpont Morgan while in Europe on his last trip abroad.

This Institution is not only equipped with instruments manufactured at Copenhagen, Denmark, under the direct supervision of Prof. Finsen, but also with instruments of similar construction from other European authorities.

It is the first and only Institution of its kind on the Pacific Coast and will undoubtedly prove a great blessing to the people here, there being but four in the United States.

Applicants for this most pleasant and comfortable treatment will be examined free of charge, and only those cases accepted for treatment which show a tendency to cure.

A spacious Private Sanitarium of twenty-five rooms is maintained in connection with this Institute.

MRS. EDDY AND HER CRITICS.

REPLY TO MARK TWAIN ON THE SUBJECT OF CHRISTIAN SCIENCE.

The North American Review for March is publishing a reply to Mark Twain, from the pen of William D. McCrackan of New York, under the title "Mrs. Eddy's Relation to Christian Science." Mr. McCrackan says in part:

"The bond of love and gratitude between Mrs. Eddy and the multitudes who have been healed, reformed and comforted by her spiritual interpretation of the Scriptures grows more secure and real as time goes on. If any individuals, lacking a proper understanding of her teachings, have thought too much of her human personality, they have either long since corrected this fault, or their own overweening sense of personality has been revealed to them as a god to be abandoned.

"Mrs. Eddy's life motive springs from her discovery. The two cannot be separated, any more than Christian Scientists can be seduced by any sophistries from acknowledging their indebtedness to one whom God has chosen in this age to make known this Good-News to them.

"Christian Scientists have systematically given away a great many books, periodicals, etc., and are doing so today. But there is much evidence to show that people appreciate more highly that for which they pay than that which is given them, and sincere persons, as a rule, prefer to make some sort of return for what they receive.

"That the business affairs of the Christian Science denomination are on a sound financial footing is conceded. Is there any fault to find with that? Is it not rather a welcome mark of stability and good faith that this denomination can meet all its liabilities as they grow, can erect its own churches and at its own cost maintain free reading rooms and free lectures to which the public have access without charge? Is it not a virtue that it needs no fairs, bazaars, etc., and that none of its churches are dedicated until paid for? If the Christian Science denomination called upon those who have not had the benefits of its Christian healing to contribute towards its expenses, or if it were in debt and unable to pay its way, the critic might justly find fault with the status of its business affairs, but under present conditions there is no such pretext.

"There is no doubt that executive and business skill are needed to manage the affairs of so great and active an organization, but because success attends this management, is it necessary to call the denomination a 'trust?'

"All religious denominations supervise the instruction of their teachers and license their clergymen. They owe this to the public as well as to themselves. Such restraints are justified by general opinion in the case of all denominations. Why should any one consider them as marks of a 'trust' when applied by Christian Scientists? The public has already been sufficiently deceived in times past as to what Christian Science is or is not, as to what it does or does not. No one who has the good of Christian Science or of the public at heart would suggest that unprepared and possibly unscrupulous individuals should be allowed to call themselves teachers of Christian Science.

"Christian Scientists, as all those know who come in touch with them, are what they are from individual experience. The Christian Science denomination grows as the result of definite, demonstrable mental, moral and physical benefits, accruing to those who come to it for help.

"In helping others to escape from the bondage of poverty, Christian Scientists are daily performing a great number of acts of charity which are for the knowledge of giver and recipient alone. It does not occur to them to tabulate these acts and furnish reports of them to the public, nor does the Christian Science denomination issue any bulletin of these acts. It was the advice of Jesus not to sound a trumpet when giving alms.

"Those who have had financial relations with the Christian Science denomination, the great body of people who attend Christian Science services, visit Christian Science reading rooms, and enjoy the benefits of Christian Science prayer are fully qualified to judge for themselves concerning the value of what they receive, while the still greater body of those who know Christian Scientists need only to turn to the latter for information.

"Mrs. Eddy has never wavered and never doubted. Judged by her actions and her writings, she has never questioned the validity of her mission to the world, in spite of the suggestion of foe or friend. She has stood undaunted and undismayed, though often misrepresented because misunderstood. Much of the value of her work is still unknown to the world at large, and will become known only as needed."

DIRE PREDICTION FROM ENGLAND.

SAYS THAT UNITED STATES FINANCES WILL SOON BURST.

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—Referring to the diminution of the strength of the New York Associated Banks, the London Times in its city article today says, according to a dispatch to the New York Times, that the mysteriously large reductions of net deposits effected in the last quarter of 1902 have usually been the result not of the real liquidation of excessive commitments, but of transfers of indebtedness to European capitalists who were ready, for a handsome consideration, to take over for a time "these attempts to put off the evil day when the United States business world will have to own that it has bitten off more than it can chew."

The article says that during the last three or four years the United States has had more success than would have been possible in the case of any other country, adding: "No country can show contempt for sound business rules with impunity, and the impunity apparently enjoyed by the United States for the disregard of the laws of economies, which is a consequence of that country's comparative youth, merely amounts to delay in the day of reckoning for such occasion of economic debauch."

POISONED AT FRENCH RESTAURANT.

After Eating She is Suddenly Stricken and Soon Passed Away at Her Home.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9. — Miss Flora Eberling, a young woman of 20 years, died at the home of her parents at an early hour this morning in convulsions.

The cause of her death has not been ascertained but from the symptoms it is believed that death resulted from ptomaine poisoning.

The young woman dined at a French restaurant last night and afterwards went to a theater.

She was seemingly in good spirits when she returned home and retired about midnight.

An hour later her moaning attracted the attention of the family and a physician was sent for immediately.

The doctor responded to the call at once, but could do nothing to relieve the young woman. She expired a few minutes later.

The physician could find no evidences of poison and the Coroner has decided to perform an autopsy.

WHAT THE GIRL ATE.

The father of the dead girl talked this morning with Walter Sanderson, his daughter's escort on Sunday night.

"Sanderson told me," said the father, "that they took dinner at a restaurant, and that they ate practically the same food for dinner, except in the matter of dessert, when Flora ate bananas and ice cream and Sanderson omitted the bananas.

SANDERSON COMPLAINS.

"Sanderson was all broken up when I talked to him. He complained of suffering slightly from bowel trouble, and attributed it to the French dinner that he had eaten, but beyond that he was not in any physical pain. He declares that he left my girl in the best of humor and feeling perfectly well, as far as appearances went.

DEATH AT MIDNIGHT.

"Flora came in about 12 o'clock, and when her mother called and asked her to wind the clock my daughter said 'No,' she would do it in the morning. In half an hour we heard her groans, and, going to the room, found my daughter in convulsions. Doctors were sent for, and they tried to relieve her, but Flora could not be helped. Convulsion after convulsion shook her body. The sight was ghastly. She never regained consciousness or recognized any of us from the time we came into the room. At 1:30 she died.

"Sanderson assured me that he came home with Flora immediately after the performance at the theater. He had been going with my daughter for about two years. Were they engaged to be married? Well, that we don't know, although I suppose they were anticipating marriage at some time in the future. She kept company with no one else."

CARBOLIC ACID FOUND.

"Did the Coroner find in her room any trace of poison?"

"No," replied Eberling; "nothing except a bottle of carbolic acid, and the doctors say it could not have been carbolic acid that caused her death.

"Flora lived at home, never went out much, was happy and contented in her life here, and no motive for suicide can be thought of by us. We are sure her poisoning was accidental."

SANDERSON QUITS WORK.

Walter Sanderson is a clerk in the shoe store at 508 Market street. He could not be found there today. The proprietor was loth to answer inquiries about his whereabouts. He said Sanderson had excused himself for the day. He had no knowledge where Sanderson could be found. He did not know where his clerks lived.

TELL OF THE WRECK.

Sailors Arrive in Port After a Thrilling Experience.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 9.—Captain Jorgensen of the lost American bark Alexander McNeil, which stranded recently on Prater's reef, about 150 miles from Hongkong, arrived in port this morning on the steamer Coptic. With him were nine men who shipped on the McNeil when she sailed from Hongkong on December 10 last.

The sailors, in telling of their experiences today, stated that the officers of the boat became intoxicated shortly after she left Hongkong, and that for that reason, the vessel was allowed to drift sixty miles out of her course. On December 24 she ran on the reef. The sailors say a drunken fight then ensued, during which the carpenter pulled a revolver and emptied it at the officers of the ship. Fortunately he was too intoxicated to aim straight, and his bullets flew wide of the mark.

RIGGING WAS CHOPPED DOWN.

When the vessel struck the reef she was in full rigging. Immediately the masts were cut down, and afterward a boat was lowered into the water and the first officer and four men were put aboard and ordered to explore for a place where a safe landing could be made. Before the boat got away another drunken row ensued, it is alleged. After cruising about for a couple of days the boat returned for supplies.

The first mate demanded whiskey, water and other provisions. The captain was afraid that treachery was intended, and refused to give the supplies, furnishing the boat with only a five-gallon barrel of water.

She then sailed away and was seen no more. It is thought that she put out to sea and was shortly overturned by a storm which arose.

On the reef where the McNeil struck were found several other boats which had stranded. Among them was a Chinese junk into which the McNeil's passengers carried supplies, and where they made themselves as comfortable as possible until they were picked up by a French steamer, which carried them to Honolulu, where they were cared for by the American Consul.

According to the tale of Captain Jorgensen the five men who went down in the boat which sailed from the reef were Chief Mate Evans, Charles Othsen, William Johnson and two Russians known as Albert and Aleck.

The survivors of the wreck are Captain Jorgensen, Second Mate William Spence, Charles Cutterlan, Carpenter and Sailors Fred Christiansen, Hugo Cramer, William Gilbert, J. H. Smith, W. W. Neal and I. J. Doty.

NO CLEW IN THE BURDICK CASE.

EDWIN L. BURDICK.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 9.—According to the police officials there has been no new development in the Burdick murder mystery up to a late hour today. Chief of Detectives Cusack still sticks to his theory that a woman committed the murder. This opinion is also concurred in by Superintendent of Police Bull and the District Attorney.

Mr. Burdick was president of the Union Envelope Company and was found murdered in his "den" at his residence about a week ago. Revenge was undoubtedly the motive, as nothing but a few personal letters had been removed from the room in which the bloody tragedy occurred. A life insurance policy of $25,000 will be collected by his widow, although it is stated that he entirely cut her off in his will.

A divorce suit was pending at the time of the murder and Mr. Burdick had hoped to be free in a few days.

The police hope to clear up the mystery soon, but up to date have made no progress.

STRIKERS HOLD UP A STAGE.

Force Non-Union Men to Dismount and March Them Back to the Train.

REDDING, Cal., Mar. 9.—A stage carrying eight men to the Iron Mountain mine, now tied up by the Keswick strike, was held up today near Columbia Gardens, a wayside resort four miles west of Redding, by twenty-five armed strikers.

The non-union men were forced to dismount and were marched one mile to Middle Creek station, where they were put on a south-bound train.

Eight men arrived from San Francisco this morning. A special stage provided by the company met them and started to convey them to the mine distant fourteen miles.

In some manner the strikers learned of this attempt to get men on to the property, and when the stage reached a point near Columbia Gardens, about twenty-five armed men, undoubtedly strikers, stepped out to the brush and commanded the driver to halt, and the eight were then quietly marched back to Middle Creek station and placed on the cars.

The hold-up created intense excitement here. Sheriff Richardson is swearing in more deputies.

THOUSANDS OUT ON STRIKE

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—Pursuant to the action taken yesterday about 3000 or 4000 men of the Allied Brickmaking Trades struck today to enforce demands for a recognition of the union, for an eight-hour day and a five per cent increase in wages.

It is predicted by labor leaders that before the end of the week double that number of men in various building trades depending on the brickmakers will go out in sympathy should the strike remain unsettled.

KILLED WHILE HUNTING

GILROY, Cal., March 9.—William E. Cockeran, a young rancher residing near Gilroy, was accidentally shot this morning, while hunting coyotes with a friend in the foothills, six miles east of town.

He had a large bore rifle and losing his footing on a bluff, fell, and the gun was discharged, the ball entering his back.

Death resulted shortly after. Deceased was the son of Mrs. K. M. Putney, who has been visiting relatives in Oakland.

CAN BUILD ITS OWN PLANT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 9.—The right of the city of Helena, Mont., to build and operate its own water works is affirmed in an important decision handed down today by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. The Helena Water Works Company had sought to restrain the city from such an action, claiming that its franchise and contract with the municipality were violated and its profits illegally interfered with by the city's proposal to build its own water works.

In a suit brought on these grounds, judgment in the company's favor was given.

The higher court reverses this decision and directs that the bill of complaint be dismissed. In its decision the Court of Appeals declares that the water company has no exclusive right to supply the city of Helena with water and that the municipality violates no contract in building and operating its own water works system.

WALTER MATHEWS GOES EAST

HAD A CLOSE CALL.

Mrs. John L. Howard and Friend in a Runaway.

Mrs. John L. Howard and a lady friend had a narrow escape from an accident this afternoon.

They were riding in their carriage down the slope at Vernon Heights this afternoon when the horses became frightened and ran away.

The coachman could not manage them at all.

The team dashed down Twenty-fourth street and then down Broadway at breakneck speed.

Several times the carriage came near tipping over.

The coachman could only guide the team.

When near First street the coachman and the two women all gave a mighty pull on the lines and stopped the runaways.

WATER IS NEAR THE DANGER LINE

LOUISVILLE, March 9.—The Ohio river was stationary at noon today with the gauge five inches above the danger line.

The Weather Bureau announces that the river will remain on a standstill for two feet when a further rise is expected.

The water crept up into Fourth street during the night, flooding many basements and cutting off the entrance to the Kentucky and Indiana elevated road.

The inhabitants of Shippingport, in the western end of the town, are using boats as a means of transportation, but report no serious damage.

All the lowlands north of the Louisville and Nashville river front tracks from Beck street to the "cut-off" are submerged.

A dispatch from English, Ind., reports much damage done by the Blue river.

The Wabash at Vincennes is eighteen feet and rising. People from the Illinois side are compelled to use boats or walk on the levee to reach Vincennes. Thousands of acres are under water in that vicinity.

BIRD PAID THE PENALTY

SEATTLE, March 9.—A special to the Times from Sitka says:

Homer Bird was legally executed here Friday at 10:41 p. m. The execution was absolutely void of incident.

Bird walked the hundred yards from the jail and mounted the scaffold without assistance. On the gallows he made a short speech without visible emotion, in which he protested his innocence.

Thirty seconds after the trap was sprung the murderer died without a struggle.

About twenty witnesses were allowed within the enclosure.

THE CRIME.

SEATTLE, Wash., March 9.—The crime for which Bird was executed was one which startled the entire country and attracted more attention from the fact that it was the first reported during the great Klondike rush of 1897-98. The man had started up the Yukon river with two companions. One day the two companions were found to be missing. When questioned Bird smartly maintained that they had gone off on a prospecting expedition. There was still suspicion, however, that all was not right and a thorough investigation was started, with the result that the bodies of the two men were found, riddled with bullets.

The motive for the crime has never been discovered.

Bird was tried twice and personal appeals urging clemency have been repeatedly made to the authorities at Washington. The case was carried to the Supreme Court of the United States.

PLAGUE IN THE MAZATLAN DISTRICT

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—As a result of the fever plague in Mazatlan, Mex., the United States Consulate there is obliged to do business in a hut on the outskirts of the city.

Collector Stratton today received a letter from Louis Kaiser, of the United States Consular Service in Mazatlan, in which Kaiser explains the omission in his letter of several official documents that he would have sent had he been allowed access to the Consulate quarters, which are now in quarantine.

Kaiser says he is obliged to work in the suburbs and describes the plague situation in Mazatlan as follows:

"While the plague is still with us, it is the general opinion that the worst has passed and that the plague will soon be a thing of the past. We have had one or two new cases daily, but not any new cases for the last three days.

"The authorities are doing everything in their power to stamp the fever out and have burned about 500 houses with all their contents."

THIRD TRIAL FOR WALTER DIMMICK

Accused Clerk Again Faces a Jury in United States District Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—The third trial of Walter N. Dimmick, charged with the embezzlement of $10,000 from the United States Mint in this city, was begun in the District Court this morning before Judge De Haven.

Twelve prospective jurors were examined. Of these four were excused for cause, three were peremptorily challenged by the government, and three by the defense.

A large crowd filled the court-room. Interest in the case is evidently intense.

Two convictions on other counts of embezzlement already have been secured against Dimmick. Four years in San Quentin is to be Dimmick's lot on that account. The maximum punishment he can be given, if convicted of embezzling $20,000, is a sentence of five years.

The theft is alleged to have occurred July 1, 1901. Peter F. Dunne is associated with United States District Attorney Woodworth in the prosecution of the case. George D. Collins is defending Dimmick.

The District Attorney said today: "We have much new evidence to present. The result is likely to be different from that of the two previous trials."

PASTOR TALKS OF CARRIE NATION.

REV. BAKER SAYS HER WORK ONLY HAS A TEMPORARY EFFECT.

At the First Presbyterian Church last night Rev. E. E. Baker, the pastor, delivered a prelude to his sermon on current events, and took for his topic Mrs. Carrie A. Nation and her method of reformation. The pastor did not denounce Mrs. Nation nor support her, stating that he believed the argument of force would not be a final or successful one against the liquor traffic. In part, he said:

"The visit to this city of Mrs. Carrie Nation was not a national event, but a world-wide event but it was of local interest and compelled attention. Her activity concerns a question about which we must come to a conclusion sooner or later. We must given attention to this peril to citizenship and it must be of interest. It is something which is akin to the labor problem. Everybody is interested in the foe about our very door, this foe to the family circle, the open door of the saloon. Sooner or later civilization will deal with it, the government will deal with it and the church will deal with it. It is only difficult to determine how and with what. Instead of the door being open, it should be shut; we, for the sake of respectability, for the sake of decency, for the sake of our youth, should slam shut this open door of vice, crime and all forms of iniquity. The great question is how to do it and that is where many great men differ.

"I don't believe the argument of force is a final or successful one nor is moral persuasion. You only say to the man inside, 'please close your doors,' when you exert moral persuasion. And the Gospel campaign does not hurt enough. Mrs. Nation's method of breaking things is only an occasional result at an occasional saloon with but temporary effect. Whether her method would be successful if applicable is the question.

"I never wish to say a word in defense of the saloon. But if the saloonkeeper can secure a license to sell liquor, which is his right as a citizen under this government for paying the price we place upon our womanhood and manhood, if he can purchase the privilege to ruin our men and women, our boys and girls, if he can, as a citizen, pay $7 a month to devastate our land, to rob our youth of decency and loot our homes of virtuous womanhood what are we to do if the government says it is all right? We guarantee him a recompense, we parents who know the dangers in life promise him a return upon his investment—our children."

MYSTERIOUS STEAMER THE "MASKELYNE."

NEW YORK, March 9.—The mysterious steamer which the Sloman liner Pisa saw sink in the Atlantic on February 16th was without doubt the Belgian steamship Maskelyne, which sailed from New Orleans on December 31st and Newport News on January 7th for Antwerp. She became unmanageable on January 24th, all of her fires having been extinguished by water, which flooded the stoke hole and engine room.

On January 31st the British bark Crown of Germany from San Francisco took off Captain Tanner and his crew of thirty, landing them at Queenstown on February 10th.

The steamer was supposed to be sinking when abandoned.

NEW CUTICLE FOR YOUNG GIRL.

NEWARK, N. J., March 9.—One hundred relatives and friends of Miss Margaret Cummersford of this city, intend to give up a portion of their cuticle to supply 300 square inches of skin for the girl who was seriously injured in the collision at the Clifton-avenue crossing on February 19th.

Miss Cummersford was one of the most seriously injured of the High School pupils in the crash. She is 19 years of age and her recovery, which is now said to be certain, will be due to her splendid physical condition and her strong constitution.

THE TRY-HARD CLUB'S BALL.

One of Williamsburg's organizations, the Try-Hard Bowling club, held its annual ball on Saturday night at Congress hall in East New York. Every married man who attended had to wear a badge announcing his "condition of servitude," as the club called it, and each married woman had a similar badge displayed where it could easily be seen. Unmarried women over 25 years old wore badges on which was the statement that she was an old maid. Young women wore tags on which was printed the announcement, "I'm in search of a young bachelor." Bachelors wore cards inscribed, "I'm too mean to get married."

The advice printed upon the dance programs was "Try hard to keep sober before the grand march" and "Try hard to keep full after the march." There were several verses of which the following is a sample:

If you are a bowler, try hard to win the game;
Join the Try Hard Bowling Club, you'll get there just the same;
If you are a fakir, just try hard to be square;
If you're on the level, just fake it everywhere;
If you are not married, just try to find a girl;
If you have no job at all, why, try hard not to toil.
If you're stuck on dancing, don't go in the hall,
But hang out in the barroom and try to sneak a ball.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC SHOP NEWS.

ITEMS OF INTEREST TO EMPLOYES IN THE WEST OAKLAND YARDS.

Michael O'Keefe the well known inventor who is a holder of several valuable patents was about the yards yesterday exhibiting a new appliance for the use of track layers and sectionmen.

The tool as designed in wood seems a very useful mechanism and it is probable that the patent rights may be purchased by the Southern Pacific Company.

The instrument is for the purpose of driving and extracting spikes and consists of three pieces—a chisel for taking out a chip preparatory to inserting the claw bar, and the claw bar itself and the hammer.

The chisel and hammer are detachable being fitted into the hollow shaft of the claw bar and fastened or released there at pleasure with a thumb screw. The hammer can be inserted in the hollow shaft in a similar manner and like the chisel is a long bar. It has a small hollow in the end which fits over the spike. The claw bar is raised and lowered in such a manner as to serve as a hammer. General Foreman Kellogg of the machine shops thought so highly of the appliance that he has ordered a duplicate made in iron and will give it a thorough trial.

Michael O'Keefe is the inventor of a car pulling appliance which has been tried on many railroads and which has been highly praised by several officials in the motive departments of the companies which have tried it.

MACHINE SHOPS TO BE ENLARGED AT ONCE.

Owing to the crowded condition of the machine shops in the West Oakland yards, it has been decided by the officials in charge to build a big addition at the rear of the present buildings.

This addition will be fully sixty feet by sixty feet and will be fitted up with all the necessary gearing, belting, etc., which may be needed.

For the present the new addition will be used largely for the use of repairing and refitting engines and their boilers. Work on the foundation commenced this morning.

A flat car loaded with iron shaping machinery came into the yards Saturday from Sacramento. The car load includes a radial drill, a shaper and a lathe.

LIFE OF ENGINEER WILLIAM CLARK HANGS IN THE BALANCE.

The life of William Clark, the switch engineer who was knocked senseless last Friday noon by an engine running into him at the foot of Center street, hangs in the balance.

Mr. Clark saw the engine coming and stepped out of its way only to be directly in the track of another engine coming from an opposite direction. Beside a bad scalp wound it is thought that he sustained dangerous internal injuries, for he has been vomiting blood and giving other symptoms of organic trouble.

Mr. Clark is one of the old time Southern Pacific Company employes and has been a switch engineer for thirty-five years, twenty-eight of which were spent in the Sacramento yards.

NOTES AND PERSONALS GATHERED ABOUT THE YARDS.

A large gang of caulkers are busy stuffing the cracks of the new car ferry with oakum. The sides and bottom of the vessel are now complete. The decks and some inside bracing have yet to be done.

Louis Amerson, a machinist, is laying off on account of sickness.

Three engines are in the shops being fitted with new boilers. Two of them have been sent down from Sacramento.

Charles Milner, who broke the gearing of his automobile while taking a party of young ladies riding two weeks ago, has just received some fine new brass gearings which will probably last as long as his machine. They are of solid brass and are 16x12 in size. They are now at the shops awaiting a little fitting which must be done.

PROHIBITIONISTS HOLD MEETINGS.

One of the principal speakers at the Prohibition banquet held here on March 6 was Hon. T. M. Glover, who had just arrived from New Zealand. Mr. Glover has been in successful temperance and prohibition work for years and is said to be one of the ablest English advocates of the Prohibition reform. At the banquet he told of the wonderful Prohibition victories recently secured in the colonies. His speech was heartily received.

Mr. Glover will speak a number of times before going to Victoria, B. C. He is a prominent Good Templar of the colonies and will visit and speak for the order in California, as well as for the movement in general.

The Meneley Quartet has just finished a fifty-day tour of California. It has been the most successful visit they have ever made to California. During this time they have given forty-five concerts, held nine conferences under the auspices of the Prohibition State Committee, besides giving a sacred concert every Sunday evening. The total receipts of the concerts will amount to $3,000 and over 15,000 people have listened to their prohibition songs. The State Committee realized nearly $300 from the conferences for the 1903 campaign fund.

Professor Louch and wife are now touring California in the interest of the Prohibition Alliance work, the first meeting having been held in San Bernardino. A big meeting was held in Santa Ana on the 4th inst. in the Methodist Church.

Oakland Prohibitionists have carried on an active municipal campaign this year, which included a big rally with the Meneley Quartet, which filled one of the largest halls in town and finished with a banquet attended by Hon. T. M. Glover and Mrs. Carrie Nation. At the banquet S. P. Meads acted as toastmaster. There was a large attendance.

J. M. Glass and James L. Himrod are now in the field for Prohibition work. Mr. Glass will speak in the coast counties and Himrod will go north as far as Humboldt county.

MURDERER MADE HIS ESCAPE.

EXCITEMENT RUNS HIGH IN THE CITY OF WATERBURY.

WATERBURY, Conn., March 9.—The search for the murderer of Policeman Paul Mendlesohn, who was slain by one of the shots fired by the party of masked men in their attack upon a trolley car last evening, was renewed today after a posse had spent most of the night scouring the region about Forest Park.

As far as known the detectives have not secured any clew.

It is believed that Conductor Weberndoerfer and Motorman Chambers, both of whom were wounded in the attack upon their car, will be able to resume work shortly.

Excitement runs high over the killing which is regarded as the climax to the disturbances which have accompanied the strike of the street railway men. Early today leaders of the strikers gave out interviews in which they declared that the union would offer a reward for information leading to the detection of the men concerned in last night's violence.

CHANGES MADE IN THE LEAGUE.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—Stanley Robison, vice-president of the St. Louis National League Club, announces that Burke has been released to St. Louis, Kruger to Pittsburg and Beaubear to Philadelphia, Frank de Haas Robinson, president of the St. Louis National League Club and Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburg National League Club, in New York last week agreed to make an exchange of players whereby Burke was to come to St. Louis and Kruger go to Pittsburg. They thought the exchange would be of advantage to both players interested and their respective clubs.

GRAND RIVER IS RISING FAST.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. March 9.—Grand River is rising here at the rate of about an inch an hour and rapidly approaching the high water mark of two years ago. It is far out of its banks and has already isolated a number of houses and factories in the flats on both banks. The wreck of the North Park bridge that went out yesterday, has anchored, however, and no damage is anticipated from it. Reports from up the river as far as Portland, say that the danger is over. The weather continues mild.

TRAINMEN MAKE AN ANSWER.

Want the Court to Dissolve the Injunction in the Wabash Case.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—A motion for the dissolution of, with an answer to the injunction secured last Tuesday by President Joseph Ramsey Jr. of the Wabash Railway Company restraining the officers of the brotherhoods represented in the controversy and the employes of the road serving on Grievance Committees from calling a strike, was filed with Judge Elmer E. Adams in the court here at 10:05 this morning. Affidavits of many brotherhood officials were simultaneously filed with the answer.

Until last night work on the important document had been carried on unremittingly since Friday last by Judge W. T. Irwin of Peoria, Ills.; E. J. Finney of Cleveland and John H. Murphy of Denver, counsel for the brotherhoods interested. It contains about 15,000 words.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—The answer as filed is a joint and several answer of all the defendants named in the bill of complaint and against which the injunction is sued. A specific denial that the Wabash Railway was ever an employer of exclusive union or brotherhood members in its service, and also denies that the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, the organizations involved in this proceeding, ever made any demand or attempt to compel the Wabash Railway to place any restrictions upon its employes as to their connection with any brotherhood or union. It specifically denies that such organizations ever participated in any way in the Pullman Palace car employes' strike in 1894, as charged in the bill of complaint, and admits that the Wabash Railroad Company never made any distinction in the selection of its employes as to whether they were members of any brotherhood or union, since or prior to the Pullman Palace Car Company employes' strike of 1894. It specifically denies all allegations in the bill of complaint that the Wabash Railway Company ever had any complaint from their employes in their respective service since 1894, but states the fact to be that the employes in the several lines of service of the Wabash Company have for years had grievances and differences with respect to the amount of wages paid and the rules and regulations governing the service of their employes in their respective lines of employment, and that this controversy arises not only from complaints of members of the respective brotherhoods but from the ranks of the employes not members of the respective brotherhoods involved in the injunction proceedings, and that the effort on the part of the Grievance Committees and the officers of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen are as representatives of over 1200 employes of the Wabash Railway Company engaged as switchmen, brakemen and firemen, upon its several lines of railway in the United States. The answer states that the several employes engaged in the train service of the Wabash Railway Company have frequently presented their grievances to the Wabash officials for adjustment and settlement, and that the officers of said company have persistently refused to take up and consider or discuss such grievances with its several employes from time to time during the past few years, or make any reasonable permanent rules or regulations governing the service of their respective employes, and that this continued vacillating policy on the part of the officials of the company finally culminated in presenting the grievances and complaint to the several Boards of Adjustment and Grievance Committee of the two labor organizations, known as the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

The answer takes up one by one the other allegations contained in the bill of complaint, and denies them.

"The defendants deny that they ever maliciously threatened to order a strike, but state that they did represent to the Wabash that many of its employes had determined to withdraw from its employment unless it acceded to the reasonable demands and requests made by the defendants in their behalf in the payment of wages and changes in rules but that if a strike should occur it would be a voluntary act on the part of the employes. It is further denied that any attempt was made to induce a strike by letters or circulars, but if any inflammatory letters or circulars were sent out it was not done by any committee or officer of said labor organization or by their approval or consent.

"The defendants further deny that the Wabash is entitled to the relief prayed for or any part thereof, and, having fully answered all the allegations and charges in the bill of complaint they deny the same and pray the same advantage of their answer as though they had specifically and separately pledged or demurred to each and every allegation or charge contained therein.

"In their answer the defendants state that the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen are voluntarily beneficial associations, that they were organized for the purpose of uniting their members and elevating their social, moral and intellectual standard, and for the protection of their interests and promotion of their general welfare. It is the aim of the brotherhood to cultivate a spirit of harmony among the members upon the basis of equity and justice and that the cardinal principles are protection, charity, sobriety, and industry." With the answer were filed copies of the constitutions, by-laws, rules and regulations of the brotherhood. Then follows a lengthy description of the manner under the by-laws and constitutions in which complaints shall be received and investigated and the proceedings that shall be followed in endeavors to effect the settlement.

The defendants state that all differences and grievances now in controversy between the employes and the Wabash were initiated from the ranks of the employes and presented to the respective grievance committees from time to time, and were by the grievance committees presented to the officers of the Wabash Railway Company, and that they were unable to settle the same and were referred to the joint protective board, which presented them to the presidents of the Wabash road and that he refused to take up or give the grievances reasonable consideration or adjust the same with the said protective board.

Then follows a transcript of the records of the proceedings of the protective board at their meeting in St. Louis in November, 1902, and January, 1903, in their efforts to effect a settlement of grievances with the Wabash.

The defendants further answer that after each of the boards and committees of the respective organizations had attempted to adjust their several differences and grievances with the Wabash and had failed to accomplish their intentions, it was resolved and agreed between them that they should work together jointly for the good of all parties whom they represented. Record was kept of all proceedings of the joint committees and boards and the transcript of this record is also filed as a part of the answer.

Many letters passed between President Ramsey and the committee having the adjustment of grievances on charge. Copies of these letters were filed as an exhibit. The defendants state that during their attempts to adjust differences with President Ramsey it was stated by him that he received them only as individuals and refused to consider the grievance as being presented by representatives of said respective organizations, and that thereupon about twelve hundred of the employes executed a written authority to the defendants to represent them in demanding and securing an adjustment of grievances. When this authority was presented to President Ramsey he refused to consider it. The defendants declared that they had made every reasonable effort with the Wabash to adjust their differences. The defendants jointly and severally further answering the said bill of complaint of the Wabash deny that the said complainant is entitled to the relief or any part thereof as prayed for in the said bill of complaint, and hence pray to be dismissed with reasonable costs in this behalf, most wrongfully sustained.

Court was in session but three minutes, during which the answer was filed, and then an indefinite recess was taken. It was later agreed between the attorneys for both sides that they will appear before Judge Adams at 2 o'clock this afternoon for a hearing.

Accompanying the answer affidavits from the following brotherhood officials were filed in its suport:

W. G. Lee, H. G. McManus, F. G. Shepard, George Bradley, William McKay, W. E. Rowe, F. H. Hecox, Joseph Sell, J. R. Courtney, E. W. White, P. H. Morrissey, Fred. Englehardt, B. W. Schaefer, C. J. Augur, A. H. Martin, H. C. Niemeyer, Charles A. Lewton and John J. Hanrahan. There was also filed as an exhibit in the answer a copy of a circular which on February 20 last was submitted by the joint general grievance committee of the two brotherhoods to each of their organizations and employes not members, who had petitioned their committees to represent them in securing different rates of wages and modification of rules and regulations governing their employment.

Copies of all the papers filed were then handed to the legal counsel for the Wabash Railway Company, who will spend until 2 o'clock this afternoon in looking them over for preparation of a hearing at that hour.

Judge W. T. Irwin of Peoria, leading counsel for the railway employes, weary and worn after three days and nights of almost unremitting labor in the preparation of the answer, stepped buoyantly from the court-room this morning, took a long, full breath and sententiously remarked: "Now I am going to get some rest."

"So are we," exclaimed the assistant members of the counsel, and it was very apparent that a great load of anxiety had been lifted from their shoulders by the filing of the answer. The answer in its entirety amounts to almost 20,000 words. Members of the brotherhoods spent the time intervening between the filing of the answer and the hearing at 2 o'clock in car rides and walks about the city in an endeavor to relieve the strain of the past week.

HE WAS RECEIVED BY EMPEROR WILLIAM.

PRESIDENT FRANCIS GETS FINE RECEPTION IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, Mar. 9.—Emperor William received President Francis of the St. Louis Exposition in audience at noon today.

The Emperor treated Mr. Francis with great distinction.

He received him privately and asked many questions about the exposition.

His Majesty remarked that expositions did as much for the interests of a better understanding between one country and another as years of diplomacy.

The conversation traveled to many subjects and had lasted fifty minutes when the Emperor rose to go. Some allusion having been made to His Majesty's letter to Admiral von Hollman on the "Babylonian Origin of the Bible" and to Houston Stewart Chamberlain's work on "The Foundations of Nineteenth Century Civilization," the Emperor sent for a copy of Mr. Chamberlain's two volume work, wrote his name on a fly leaf and presented the books to Mr. Francis.

TELL ABOUT THE RIVERS.

WEATHER BUREAU ISSUES A BULLETIN OF MUCH INTEREST.

WASHINGTON, March 9. — The Weather Bureau today issued the following special river bulletin:

The heavy rains of Saturday and Sunday have materially increased the volume of water in the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and their principal tributaries. Danger line stages prevail from Cincinnati to New Orleans.

The greatest height above the danger line is at Evansville, 6.8 feet. At Memphis the rise continues steadily at the rate of one or two-tenths of a foot per twenty-four hours, while at New Orleans the stage this morning is 18:1, a rise of .5 during the last twenty-four hours and within 1.4 feet of the highest water on record. The Mississippi above Cairo is rising rapidly. The Arkansas is also rising, while the White, Black and Red rivers are now at flood stage.

Another disturbance now over the upper Missouri valley threatens to cause more rain Tuesday and Wednesday in the Ohio and Lower Mississippi valleys. If this rain should fall in considerable quantities, it will still further intensify flood conditions and all preparations should be made for still higher stages. Additional bulletins will be issued daily or often should occasion require.

EXCITEMENT IN STOCK MARKET

UNFAVORABLE BANK STATEMENT CAUSE OF ALL THE TROUBLE.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Considerable excitement attended the opening of the day's stock market.

Events of last week, culminating with a very unfavorable bank statement and the failure in the dry goods trade, were the most disturbing factors.

The scene on the floor of the Exchange was very animated.

The attendance of brokers was unusually large and selling orders were heavy all around, as shown in the initial transactions when prices with few exceptions averaged declines of a point or more. The selling orders came from all points and commission houses with wire connections to the Middle West were conspicuous in the movement.

Boston and Philadelphia also had a big lot of orders to sell and practically every broker of prominence had an accumulation of orders of this sort over Saturday.

LITTLE BUSINESS IN THE SENATE.

There being executive business to transact, the Senate at 12:06, on motion of Mr. Cullom of Illinois, went into executive session.

At 1:15 p. m. the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

NEWS FROM CITY OF ALAMEDA

FIRE COMPANY ORGANIZED.

THE CHESTNUT STREET COMPANY ELECTS TEMPORARY OFFICERS.

ALAMEDA, March 9.—The preliminary organization of a new Hose Company for Alameda was effected Saturday evening. The new organization will be known as the Chestnut Street Hose Company and will take the place of the old Pacific Company, No. 4, which disbanded some years ago. The officers elected Saturday evening are as follows:

Ed Jarrett, foreman; B. Thorning, first assistant; G. E. Green, second assistant; Z. E. Thornton, secretary; L. Boarman, treasurer.

The new company will first make known its action to the Board of Foremen and Engineers. If that body acts favorably in the matter it will go to the City Trustees for their approval, after which it will be permanently organized.

It is not probably that the new company will meet with any difficulty and will be peramnetly affiliated with the Alameda Fire Department in a short time.

CHICKEN THIEVES IN ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, March 9.—Six dozen chickens were stolen Friday night from the poultry yards of Mike Silen and Frank Mastin on Bay Farm Island. It is thought the thieves made off with the fowls in a boat. Within a few days four raids have been made on chicken yards in the vicinity of Fruitvale. The chicken thieves use sulphur to make the fowls insensible, when they are carried off alive and without any outcry.

BASEBALL LEAGUE A SUCCESS.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL TEAMS ARE AFTER LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP.

ALAMEDA, March 9.—The Alameda Grammar School Baseball League, which is the only organization of its kind in the public schools of the State, has completed its first series of games for this season. Tomorrow the first game of the second series will take place, the contesting teams being from the Mastick and Haight Schools. On the following day the Longfellow and Wilson School teams will meet.

The contest for the league championship for this season promises to be of unusual interest, as several of the teams are pretty closely matched.

The League is conducted after the manner of professional organizations of its kind under the management of a Board of Directors composed of the Superintendent of Schools and the principals of the various Grammar Schools. The league observes the regulation baseball rules and each team is directed by the principal of the school it represents, who take part in each contest.

The games are conducted without wrangling and all questions that may arise during a contest are settled according to the rules. Already the teams are showing the result of their training and Superintendent Hughes is well pleased with the league idea which has proven so successful.

ARIZONA AT THE MACDONOUGH.

This great American play by Augustus Thomas, author of "Alabama," returns after an absence of two years, and will be at the Macdonough tonight and tomorrow night. As the title indicates, it treats of events relative to the place after which it is named. The characters are true to life and the scenery and costumes are after designs by Edward Remington the famous frontier artist. Altogether it is a production that appeals to the true American.
